EDITORIAL...

BECAUSE WHY?

In conversation with a veteran standard breed horseman on Lindsay on Sunday, it was learned that the responsible authorities had refused to renew his license to drive in harness races because... And that's the point which was hard to catch. Was it that they considered him too old? ... He had just turned 70 and looked and acted like a man several years younger... Was it because the "boy" who had been appearing in the papers was just going "by the book" without taking into consideration all the other factors which might enter into the case?... Here the man we have reference to is Mr. Alex. Forrest, a horseman who has been raising and racing horses since he was a lad. Anyone who has had any contact with him knows he is a competent and hardy and that he knows he is on the track. Why deprive a person, whose heart is so close to the business, of the right to drive a race horse for some reason, especially when he has been doing so for every bit as competent to handle horses as he ever was?... Shouldn't he be the one to decide when to stop driving them?... Here we catch that point in the deterioration of our democratic rights that privileges can be denied to a citizen without providing adequate reason — a reason which would be directly responsible to all concerned? Surely political considerations wouldn't enter into it thing like this... or would they?

Reports and Remarks...

MR. PICKERSGILL PICKS HIS WAY

The Glaxo Commission recommends that the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation operate subject to directions from a minister of the Crown or the cabinet. The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation has been out of hand for quite a while and there is no indication that the directors have it under control. The extravagance of management is still going on.

No organization supported by public funds should be a law unto itself. It should be under some control of government. But politicians care easily. Neither Dr. McEwen nor Mr. Nowlan ever successfully directed the CBC and perhaps didn't want to. An attempt to direct it might be considered as an attack on "the integrity of the news". Perhaps it was. But the remedy lay not in defying Dr. McEwen but in urging the whole situation so that the public could know.

Every dissemination of opinions and news must have a boss. If the editor isn't both the publisher and owner in the newspaper world, he is subject ultimately to the politicians, directors, and possibly dimmed by the owner.

The owner of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation is the Minister. Should the taxpayer be defiled and told that it is none of his business what the CBC does, or answers he will, the policy of his immediate predecessor, Mr. Nowlan, or of Mr. Nowlan's predecessor, Dr. McEwen, who once had his fingers rapped, possibly because he interfered at the wrong moment and in the wrong point. — The Printed Word.

Remember way back when

JUNE 5, 1913

The Light, Heat and Power Co., today installed a lighting system for the park. The town council decided on this improvement at their last meeting. Incandescent lamps being used, they were strung on the trees. The additional light was much needed. Previously it was with some hesitancy that ladies went along the dark stretch of sidewalk from the park. Ald. Adams, Chairman of Police and Light Committee and W.E. Reesor, of the Light, Heat and Power Co., visited the park yesterday and decided to install Tungsten lamps in the park and under the trees along the sidewalk from Victoria Ave. to Sussex St. The lights in the park will be arranged in a V shape running from the band stand to Kent St. Six Tungsten lamps of 50 candle power will be installed in the V and four under the trees along Kent St.

JUNE 5, 1920

A large truck owned by J.A. Stevens, of Little Britain, and carrying a large number of pigs, sheep and cattle turned over on Highway No. 7 at Woodville and while the truck was extensively damaged particularly about the cab and rack, the owner was fortunate in losing only one pig, a sheep was killed. It is reported the sheep's back was broken. "The Post" is informed that Mr. Stevens, during the heavy rain was forced to the side of the road by a truck he was meeting and that his truck turned over in the ditch. The animals were thrown out.

19 Registered.

Nineteen births were registered during the month of May at the town office. It is reported in the vital statistics just released, during the same period only 12 deaths were registered and eight marriages were performed by Lindsay clergymen.

A LOVELIER YOU

By MARY SUE MILLER

Pick up a sponge or wash cloth and dip it into the tub, to dab out the water as you can lift it, the times each foot. Repeat your job until the water is out of the tub and the wash. Repeat these times.

No soap, more of these objects hold water — if you exercise in water. As good, just try exercising every day in the bathtub. Simply fill your tub with warm water, get in, stretch out and relax for a few minutes. The still in the aquatic position, perform deep breathing and limbering routines.

When you have completed the exercise, lie back and rest a while. Finish with a rubber scrub, the bath and dry your skin with dry clothing.

The procedure is truly effective, and adds only four minutes to your day. What more can you be doing to keep healthy and contented? And the best bonus is satisfaction over doing right by your figure if it will!

LAZY GIRLS' EXERCISE

Could you do with a few minutes' exercise, but just can't get up? It's not too late, too bad, too boring, too... Pick up a sponge or wash cloth and dip it into the tub, to dab out the water as you can lift it, the times each foot. Repeat your job until the water is out of the tub and the wash. Repeat these times.

Baby Christened

Rebecca (PNS) — The Sunday christening of the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Luck-son was held at 4 p.m. at the St. Paul's Anglican Church,
Lindsay.

Rev. D. E. Lemon performed the ceremony and the baby received the names Geoffrey Scott.
His godparents were Mr. and
Mrs. Parker Baile, of Lindsey, the latter being the baby's maternal aunt.

Following the service, the baby's parents were hosts to the guests at their home for a lucky dinner.
The guests included the baby's grandparents, Mr. and
Mrs. Parker Baile, of Lindsey, the latter being the baby's maternal aunt. Mr. and Mrs.
Sherman Moore, Lindsay, the baby's paternal aunt. Mr. and Mrs. DeNure, Mr. DeNure, dsey.

Geoffrey's brother Gregory was also present for the christening.

Lindsay man, 92 laid to rest in Haliburton

Haliburton (PNS) — Isaac Hadley, Lindsay resident for the past 22 years, passed away in Timmins Nursing Home, Lindsay, on June 1st.
He was in his 92nd year.
The late Mr. Hadley had lived in Haliburton many years before coming to Lindsay. His first wife, the former Mary Spier, passed on while in residence there. His second wife, the former Maude Hollingsworth of Lindsay predeceased him while the couple were living in Lindsay some 16 years ago.
Mr. Karl Hadley, of Point
Edward is his only son. He and his wife, the former Hazel
Riley, of Lindsay also resided in Haliburton for some time.

Quite a number were present at the graveside service held in Evergreen Cemetery
Haliburton.

Little Britain

Mrs. Stanley Geach has returned to her home in the village after spending a most enjoyable holiday in Toronto with her son-in-laws and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. William Slade and Mr. and Mrs.
Stanley Carasco.

Mr. Rex Brown is at present improving the appearance of the new dwelling which he recently purchased in the village and which was formerly occupied and owned by the late
Mr. and Mrs. Laura Kennedy.
Several from the community attended the funeral service of the late Mrs. Mary Mc-Donald of Creswell which was held at the Mackey Funeral Chapel in Lindsay, on Tuesday last week with interment being made at the Manilla
Cemetery, west of Smith.
The late Mrs. McDonald is survived by a sister, Mrs.
Joseph Sparks of Little Britain.

Three Doubleheaders on Tap

A heavy Major League Baseball schedule today includes three doubleheaders. San Francisco visits the Chicago Cubs for a daylight twinbill and Milwaukee is at New York for an afternoon contest. Cincinnati plays a twilight doubleheader at Pittsburgh and at other National League night games it's St. Louis at Philadelphia and the Los Angeles Dodgers at Houston. The entire American League schedule is after dark with the New York Yankees at Baltimore, Detroit at Cleveland, Boston at Washington, Minnesota at Kansas City and the Chicago White Sox at Los Angeles for a twilighter.

Baltimore Moves Up Front

Baltimore moved past New York and into first place in the close American pennant race with a 3-1 win over the Yankees last night. Minnesota blanked Kansas City, 5-0. . . Washington edged Boston, 1-0. . . and Cleveland beat Detroit, 6-4. The Los Angeles Angels blanked the Chicago White Sox, 1-0. The Chicago Cubs turned back National League leaders San Francisco, 6-1. . . the Los Angeles Dodgers shamed Houston, 2-1. . . and Milwaukee tripped the New York Mets, 3-2. Cincinnati was rained out at Pittsburgh. . . and Philadelphia and St. Louis were idle.

Has Now Earned $26,543

Dow Pineternal's 10-thousand dollar paycheck for winning the recent "500 Festival" Open boosted him into sixth place among money winners on the pro tour. Pineternal has now earned 26-thousand-543 dollars. Jack Nicklaus remains on top with 57-thousand-615 dollars.

There Was Plenty of News

There was plenty of news at the National Hockey League meet at Montreal Tuesday.

The Detroit Red Wings shelved out 80-thousand dollars for four minor League players at the annual inter-league draft. The Boston Bruins picked up veteran Montreal defenseman Tom Johnson on waivers.

The New York Rangers announced six-time Vesna Trophy winning goalie Jacques Plante and forwards Phil Goyette and Doug Marshall and sent goalie Gump Worsley and forwards Dave Baron Leon Rochefort and Len Ronson to Montreal.

Bill Rousey coach at Buffalo for two seasons is the new head coach of the Chicago Black Hawks, succeeding fired Rudy Pilous.

Three former players and a referee were elected into the Hockey Hall of Fame. The former players are Joe Primeau of Toronto, Eddie Goodfellow of Detroit, Earl Siskert of New York and Chicago, and Bobby Weinman, the curator of the Hall of Fame in Toronto. Primeau is the son of a former Lindsay grocer.

Football Star Electrified

Cleveland Browns' football star Dan Fleming was electrified with a fellow worker at a construction site at Orlando, Florida, yesterday. Fleming had taken the job to stay in shape during the off-season. He was a member of the National Football League All-Star team last season as a safety man.

"Boxer Of The Month"

The World Boxing Association has honored new light heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano of "Boxer of the Month". Pastrano took the title from Harold Johnson at Las Vegas last Saturday night. Johnson was dropped to third place in the latest W-B-A ratings behind Mauro Mina and Eddie Cotton.

Pastrano led a mile-long parade to the centre for the spring dancing competition accompanied Mr. Moore. 25 young and old gave Hattie to Pembroke.

Drama workshop being held in Lindsay on weekend

A "Drama Workshop" will be held in the Lindsay recreation centre, Russell St., starting Friday night at 7:30 and continuing through Saturday afternoon. Sponsored by the Lindsay Little Theatre Group in conjunction with the Community Branch of the Department of Education, group President Robert Harris says the workshop or school will be extremely beneficial to anyone in the Lindsay area connected with amateur theatre.

Richard Howard, Toronto, with 20 years theatrical experience, will conduct the school. There will be a maximum of 30 registrations (all that can be successfully instructed). There are a few registrations yet to be filled. Miss Harris disclosed, adding, these can be by calling a home number or by of group secretary, Leone Skipworth.

Bagshaw Builders become the giant killers

Bagshaw Builders became later in the game to make the giant killers last night when they edged first place Western's Mercury 8-6 in a thrilling game at Victoria Park. The Builders jumped on rookie pitcher Bob Francis for a four-run second inning and added four helpers in the fifth, then with two in the sixth, a double and a two-run homer brought Craig Case to the rescue. Case took four batters to get the third out but no additional runs scored in the inning. The insurance run for the Builders in the ninth was rather tainted when the batter walked, stole second, and scored on the over-throw to centre field. Bagshaw batters rallied 12 safeties off the Mercury staff the same total that only gained the Builders a loss on Monday night. Glen Thomas, Bud Richmond, Bill Horton and Mal Hickox each collected two safeties, while Bill Lyle, Bill Henessey, Rich Gosselle, and Tommy Quibell had a hit each. Bill Lyle's was of the four-base type. Glen Thomas had a triple, rookie Bud Richmond rapped two doubles, Rich Gosselle and Mal Hickox each had a double, Bill Horton a double and a single. The six Mercury safeties were shared by six players. Don Jackett hit a triple and

The Smith Boys are key contenders out of teams

(United Press International) The Smith boys, Willie and Billy, are making contenders out of second place Syracuse and Arkansas in the International League. Willie Smith, with some 10th inning relief from Bob Dostal, won his seventh game of the season when Syracuse defeated Jacksonville, 5-3, Tuesday night. The victory moved the Chiefs to within one game of first place Buffalo in the northern division as the Blues dropped a pair to Columbus 2-1 and 1-4. Billy Smith turned in a late fireman chore for Arkansas and picked up his fourth win when the travellers edged Toronto 4-3, in 12 innings. Arkansas is seven games behind Atlanta, the southern division leader. Dick Lines held Buffalo to six hits in the opener and Bob Burns hammered two homers for Columbus in the nightcap to spearhead the double victory for the Jets. Rochester went 11 innings before squaring up Atlanta, 6-5. The Richmond-Indianapolis game was postponed.

Janetville

A number of ladies from Janetville W. I. spent the day at Woodville where the district annual was held for West Victoria. They also celebrated their 60th anniversary. Visitors at the Moxon home the past week were Mr. Charles Silk, Mr. and Mrs. William Silk and family of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hewley of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Moxon, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Anthony of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rock and family of Peterborough.

Yelverton

Glad to report that both Mrs. Harold Stinson and Mrs. Cephas Staples were well enough to be released from Ross Memorial Hospital and transferred to a nursing home in Lindsay. Mrs. Aue Van Der Meer and Roxanne have enjoyed a week's visit with her parents, the Frank Glasbergs, prior to moving to their new abode in Bowmanville from Newcastle. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glasberg spent the weekend with friends in Stony Creek. Welcome callers last week at Malcovia were Mrs. Lloyd Hunter of Port Perry, accompanied by Mrs. Merrill Van Camp of Blackstock. Mr. Flein Thompson and Mr. Marlow Thompson have sold their farm and the new tenants expect to move in in the near future. An E. Fluikner called on the G.E. Robinsons at Cavan while visiting the Ray Robinsons.

At Baddow district annual

Mrs. J. E. Brown elected Victoria E. WI president

Fenion Falls (PNS)—The District Annual of Victoria East Women's Institute was held in Baddow United Church with Lakeview Institute as hostess.

Mrs. J. E. Brown presided and following registration the meeting was opened by Mrs. Oie, and Mary Stewart, Collect and Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. H. Hopkins, president of the Lakeview Institute extended a gracious welcome to the guests, and said that Lakeview were especially happy to be the hostess club this year as it was their 20th anniversary. She reminded the ladies that the success of your branch is "up to you" you only get out of any project what your part is in it.

An impressive memorial service was conducted by Mrs. A. Graham in memory of the eight members who have been called to higher spheres during the past year. As an appropriate poem was read truly was a tribute in memory of each departed member.

Minutes of the 1962 District Annual held in Fenion Falls were read by the Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. Wm. Brokenshire, after which the formal ratification of the District Directors was conducted by the federated branch member, Mrs. Augustus.

In her opening remarks Mrs. Brown reported that during her first year as District president she had visited the 13 branches where she had been warmly welcomed and had enjoyed meeting the members personally. The report of the auditors, Mrs. O. Brokenshire and Mrs. M. Runney was given by Mrs. Runney.

One minute reports were given by the following branches: Blythe, Bobakaygon, Burnt River, Bury's Green, Fenion, Fenion Falls, Lakeview, Minden, Norland, Omesee, Pleasant Valley and Plover Corners, followed by five minute reports by the convener of Standing Committee — Agricultural and Canadian Industries — Mrs. Gordon Hogg; Citizenship Education — Mrs. Howard Paulson; Historical Research and Current Events — Mrs. C. Chalmers; Home Economics and Health — Mrs. T. McDonald; Public Relations — Mrs. H. Platt; Resolutions — Mrs. P. Corson. As the curator Miss Amy Cosh was unable to be present her report was read by a member of the Bobakaygon branch. All reports were most interesting and from them, delegates were able to glean new ideas and suggestions to take back to their own branches. Mrs. Augustus, Federated Board member was the speaker for the morning meeting. She spoke of the project of restoring and furnishing the Adelaide Hoodless home and asked for support of all branches in this and in projects for peace. She encouraged self help for the underdeveloped countries. Next year the membership fee in local branches will be increased to $1.00 and later in the day the ladies were told that after June 1st, membership to C.A.C. will be $3.00.

Before the meeting adjourned for the noon hour the institute grace was sung. The ladies of Lakeview Institute served delicious hot meat and during the dinner hour there was a sale of goods to which each branch had contributed five articles. Proceeds of the sale are used for the support of the child adopted by the District through the Foster Parents Plan.

The afternoon session was opened with O Canada after which Miss Waddell, Home Economist for Victoria gave an interesting talk on her work. The junior work is mainly with H. Clubs, and she urged all branches to sponsor this worthwhile task which is a most rewarding one.

At the present time the majority of 41 members are in the 18 to 30 age group. 41 courses planned for the coming year are "The Super Club" and "Dressing up Vegetables".

Regarding the work of the 13 branches, Mrs. Brown said the topic of one day schools conducted by Miss Ruth Morley are now available. One day schools have been found to be quite expensive, and it is hoped to establish more training schools, where members of the branch take the course and return to teach their own members.

Mrs. Hunter of Peterboro spoke on the C. A. C. and she spoke chiefly on "Testing". Comparative tests on consumer products are progressing. Three projects are now complete and ready for publication. While the actual work of testing has been proceeding the A. C. Executive committee has been exploring possible avenues to publishing a testing magazine. Such magazines now on the market feature all Canadian brands and will provide an invaluable service to consumers.

A delightful interlude of music presented by the pupils of Baddow Public School under the direction of Mrs. Halliday, when soloists and group numbers played on an instrument comparatively new in Canada, the recorder were enjoyed. Vocal numbers by individual students and a two-part chorus by the entire group were also a part of the enjoyable programme.

The report of the nominating committee was presented by Mrs. B. Graham. Mrs. Augustus conducted the election of officers as follows: Past President — Mrs. J. E. Brown; Secretary-Treasurer — Mrs. Wm. Brokenshire; 1st Vice-President — Mrs. C. Leash; 2nd Vice-President — Mrs. M. Sears; Auditors — Mrs. M. Runney, Mrs. O. Brokenshire. Convener of standing committees: Agriculture and Canadian Industries — Mrs. Gordon Hogg; Citizenship and Education — Mrs. Howard Paulson; Historical Research and Current Events — Mrs. C. Chalmers; Home Economics and Health — Mrs. J. B. Corson; Resolutions — Mrs. P. Corson; Curator — Miss Amy Cosh; Public Relations Officer — Mrs. H. Platt.

The executive were installed by Mrs. Augustus and a period of business followed. The master of dividing East and West Victoria Districts and forming a Central District was discussed briefly but no steps were taken. Mrs. Cecil Leash gave the courtesy report which contained a very full and enjoyable day.

The 1964 District Annual will be held at Minden.

Women of Moose commemorate chapter's 14th birthday

The Women of the Moose celebrated the 14th birthday of the chapter of the organization of the Chapter.

A number of charter members were present at the head table. Junior Grandmaster Reginald Lewis, co-winner of the 1962-63 Moose competition, was the guest of honor.

Co-winner Sarah Scott, chapter member and the oldest member of the chapter, cut the birthday cake. This was served with cream, tea and coffee for dessert.

Miss Mary Craig was master of ceremonies and first called on Colleague Mary Hargreaves to give the opening prayer, then a prayer by the chapter member, Miss Margaret Lewis, who is a member of the chapter of the organization.

Each of the chapter members were then asked to say a few words in appreciation of the organization. She then called on a number of co-workers to sing. The tables were cleared and the evening's entertainment began. To start off each co-worker was asked to do a stunt. There was a lot of fun and co-worker Mary Hall won the prize for the best prize was a win.

The remainder of the evening was spent playing pool, playing cards, and playing a game of chance. There were nine tables of cards, Co-worker Linda and Co-worker Mary Hall won the prize for the best prize was a win. Lindsay's Municipal Airport will soon be provided with a major service centre for both ground and air travel. Lindsay's airport approved the granting of a site for the construction of the buildings Monday night. They are to include restaurant and service station for cars or planes to be undertaken immediately.

Council sanctioned the granting of a 30-year lease on airport land for the building of "Lindsay Airport Services Ltd., now in process of organization.

A. (A.W.) Wilson of Wilson's Welding and Marine, who is selecting trucks on the terms of the lease (read in council) gave the town of Lindsay a yearly rental for the land of $3500 to the 30-year lease basis and after two years, a half-cent per gallon on gas sales over 65,000 gallons.

The full personnel of the company is not finalized, stated Architect William B. Smith, designer of the proposed airport service centre.

All licensed airports must have such service centre, it was pointed out.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steiner, M.D., F.A.C.P.

PECULIAR HEALTH IDEAS ARE SLOW TO CHANGE

Dear Dr. Steiner: Our husband, an otherwise neat and fastidious person, has lately developed a peculiar idea. He thinks that frequent bathing is unhealthful. He takes a bath only once a week. During hot weather this peculiar idea of his can make many people who are not his very uncomfortable. Can you help Dr. Steiner, Mrs. G. Comment: Sorry, I don't know unless your husband is one of those rare persons who will throw a bath overboard after reading a few words like these: "One shower or bath a day will not be harmful to your health, Mr. G."

"Peculiar idea" There are many around and they die hard.

For example, there is the hoary one that mixing drinks will make one sick. It isn't as much the mixing as the taking, too many that turns one's stomach.

Another: that one should move a bowel movement every day; otherwise the "poisons" will collect in the lower bowel and be absorbed by the rest of the body.

Another: that you mustn't take water during your meal because it will interfere with digestion.

Another: never eat ice cream after you have had oysters.

Another: that a bailing man can improve hair by rubbing in "special medicines."

Another: that a quack can save you while an expertly trained M.D. is helpless.

Another: There are hundreds of them.

WEIGHT CONTROL

Dear Dr. Steiner: I have a good doctor, but when I ask him to do something about my overweight, he just laughs and says that too much is being made of the problem. What do you think? Mrs. P.

Comment: Here is part of an editorial from the Journal of Medical Society of New Jersey and written by Henry

A. Davidson, M.D. He calls it "Weight Control." A Physician's Job. "Show this to your doctor. He may change his mind."

"Obesity is rapidly becoming a major health problem. For some reason, many clinicians have hesitated to do serious work in this field. Into the resulting vacuum, have come a host of diet faddists, physical culturists, cosmologists, gymnasts, dance instructors, masseurs, cosmetologists, naturopaths, and a spectrum of crackpots promulgating a variety of fancies."

"Yet this is a medical specialty worthy of any physician's interest and challenge. The problem is obviously a big one. Some physicians look down their noses at such a task and do nothing about it."

"They see it as a kind of cosmology without the physician's authority. This is an unfortunate and unjustified snobbery. The person belongs in a doctor's office. Let us not drive him to the cultist by assuming that it is in his gift for the physician to treat this problem."

Cobconk

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sims and family, and Mrs. Bill Eversen of Lindsay visited Mrs. and Mrs. Bill Eversen.

A number of friends of Miss Jean Cavana of Hurry's Green met the home of Mrs. Annie Marie, where a miscellaneous shower.

Jeann's forthcoming marriage, was held. Jean received a wide variety of beautiful gifts.

Sympathy goes out to the Wilkinson family in the passing of Lloyd Wilkinson. Mr. Wilkinson had not been well for a number of years but his death came suddenly when he became much worse two days before his death. He will be missed by many in the community.

IRONING ONLY TEMPORARY AID

For Mr. V. I recall the many patients, years ago, who told me they received relief from sciatitis by lying down while their wife "ironed it out" with a hot iron. Those were the days before we knew about electric trouble. Heat is still good—but only temporary.

FIGHT FOR SIGHT

She is as great an inspiration to those who can see as she is to the sightless. A few minutes in her presence and you have with determination to do something to help in the fight against blindness. She is Mrs. Rhoda Levine, Founder-President of "Right for Sight" League of Greater Miami.

Recently I was again under her spell. She is always wanting to do something for people. Before I left, I said, "I haven't written anything about your organization for a long time. How about sending me something?" She said, "I'll send you some of the facts and statistics."

SCIENTISTS STRIVING FOR CURES

It is estimated that 70 per cent of blindness can be prevented or cured through research. Scientists are striving to find the answers to combat dread eye diseases such as glaucoma, cataracts, diabetic retinopathy, detached retina, cataract deterioration of the retina, leprosy in the eye, and other diseases which

WHAT WOULD BECOME OF MARPOSA STATION?

A very disturbing proposal presents itself in the matter of the reported proposal by the Canadian National Railway to rip up its tracks between Lindsay and Blackwater Junction. It is disturbing in many respects as some businesses along the line which have been good customers of the railroad over the years.

One of the unpleasant prospects which arise is the threat to Marposa Station, long a landmark in Marposa Township. The station played an important role in the life of the late Stephen Leacock, who borrowed the name "Marposa" for use in his "Sketches of a Sunshine Village". It would be most distressing if this structure with its colourful background should come to an ignominious end which befit the Lindsay CNR depot. What would become of Marposa Station if the CNR did tear up its tracks and the station was of no further use to them? Would Marposa Township Council stand idly by and do nothing to protect this historic building or would they take appropriate action to ensure its preservation.

Returning for a moment to the other aspects of taking out service to this point, Long and Lyle Ltd. and those interested in the projected Farmers' Allied Meat Enterprises venture adjacent to Marposa Station, will no doubt wish to make strong representation to the CNR in protest of being without rail service.

Remember way back when

JUNE 12, 1913

The fire at Cambridge did not assume the proportions it was feared it would at one period and the loss is not nearly as bad as was reported. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a boiler in year of Mrs. McIntyre's residence, the prevailing high wind carrying the embers to the frame residence which burned like matchwood. In a short time it was a mass of flames and it was impossible to save any of the contents. A general conflagration looked imminent as the sparks were flying and the fence on the farm of Harry Barrett a half mile from Cambridge took fire. Mrs. McIntyre had $200.00 insurance on house and contents.

JUNE 12, 1928

A rate of 3.66 was set by the Victoria County Council for the general account. This rate is exactly the same as last year, although the sum being collected is $10,000 less. The rate struck for the Home for the Aged amount is 7 mills an increase from .55 last year. Estimates for the general account accepted by the Finance and Assessment Committee, called for the raising of $10,832.22 and the levy on $19,676,440.00 at 3.6 mills is $71,000.52. The same rate last year was on an assessment of $22,474,450.00 which has been decreased by practically three million dollars.

Impressed with Market Success

Members of the County Council of Victoria, visited the Lindsay Market, and were greatly impressed with the trade and commerce evident there. "I've heard a lot about this market and now I'm going to take a look at it," Reeve William Grant, of Woodville said. The Post on his way up.

SAFETY RULES SUGGESTED FOR POWER LAWN MOWERS

For a machine, the cutting blade of which travel at over 180 miles per hour, the rotary lawn mower is certainly treated without much respect. Many people allow children to operate this potentially lethal piece of equipment.

When treated properly, it is quite safe, but when handled carelessly, it is very dangerous. In Ontario alone, hundreds of fingers and toes are amputated by the rotary mower each summer.

Hal Wright, Farm Safety Specialist with the Ontario Department of Agriculture, emphasizes the following common sense rules to make the family mower a harmless and efficient tool.

- Give your full attention to the job of mowing.
- Never allow children to operate this machine.
- Avoid pulling the lawn mower backwards — you could slip and the mower could run over your foot.
- Wear heavy boots, never sandals or barefoot.
- Clear the lawn of all debris such as sticks, stones, toys that could be thrown by the blade.
- Never cut the lawn when it becomes dusk. You need light to see any obstructions or obstacles.
- Wet grass clippings the blade as well as greatly increasing the hazard of slipping or falling.
- Stay clear of the grass discharge opening, when the engine is running. The blades could pick up small objects and injure you.
- Never reach under the deck, lift the mower, or adjust the cutting height when the engine is running.
- Before doing any adjustment, lubrication or examination of the mower, make sure the spark plug wire is disconnected. Even tilting the mower or moving the blades could start the engine.
- Stop the engine if anyone comes close to the machine. This also applies to pets.
- Never leave the engine running if you must leave the mower.

- Retain only outdoors and when the engine is cool.

In brief, give this little mow when your color blade the same respect and attention that you would a car traveling at the same speed.

difference in
Electrohome TVI

Other TV manufacturers talk about trouble free service. But Electrohome's satisfaction is in this no publicity stunt. The plan that sets Electrohome apart are more dependable. Why? For one thing, they are designed that way with make these most durable components. For another, they are hand assembled by trained technicians. This reggie set is performance tested by a trained engineer.

You'll like the difference in Electrohome's picture and sound quality. This is created by Delco's latest line furniture division of components.

- Advanced circuitry lines eliminate picture and sound interference.
- New circuit board replaces tubes, reduces repair costs.

SEVEN DEAD IN BLAZE

Seven members of one family died in a blaze that destroyed their Vaughan, Washington, home this morning. The county coroner's office said it is possible at least one other person died in the blaze. One person was saved. Identity of the victims is not known.

SNIPER'S BULLET KILLS

A sniper's bullet this morning killed a negro leader in Jackson, Mississippi. Major Ernest, state leader of the N-Double-A-C-P, had just returned from a civil rights rally. His wife said she heard shots... apparently fired from across the street. A bullet struck Ernest in the back. He died an hour later in a hospital. He was 37 years old, the father of four children.

CALL IT "AN ASSASSINATION"

In New York City, Executive Secretary Ray Wilkins of the N-Double-A-C-P called the killing "an assassination." He said in these words—it shows the "murderous hatred that characterizes too many Mississippians."

STUDENTS BEGIN CLASSES

Negro students Vivian Malone and James Hood began classes this morning (10:30 EDT) at the previously all-white University of Alabama. They will have an escort of US Marshals at least today and possibly longer. He died an hour later in a hospital. He was 37 years old, the father of four children.

THIRD UO TO REGISTER

A third negro is due to register at the Huntsville campus on the University of Alabama tomorrow — it seems certain Governor Wallace won't try to block it. An aide to Wallace pointed out that Wallace may lead him, yesterday and added in these words: "He makes another, it could appear ridiculous."

WINS VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Prime Minister Mulroney won a vote of confidence from his cabinet this morning of his handling of the Profumo scandal. The affair raised a turmoil in the government and prompted demands for Mulroney's resignation. It now appears that he has won out against those demands. The Lord Chancellor is believed to have reported that National Security is not impaired in the relationship between assigned War Minister John Profumo and London call girl Christine Keeler.

Jean Catherine Cavanagh weds Alfred Hilyer

Rebel Tabernash, Poste central Church at Bobcaygeon was the setting for the wedding of Jean Catherine Cavanagh and Alfred Hilyer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cavanagh, of Barry's Green, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Wellington Hilyer and the late Mr. Wellington Hilyer, of Barry's Green.

Rev. Roney, of Bobcaygeon, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Marshall of Bobcaygeon sang "I'll Walk Beside You" and the "Wedding Prayer" and she was accompanied by Mrs. Boyd, also of Bobcaygeon.

A flower-length gown of satin de sole on princess lines, accented with appliques of silver lace and pearls was chosen by the bride. The bodice was fashioned with a square neckline and lilypond sleeves. Her headress was a crown style with an elbow-length veil. The bride carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of pink carnations.

Street-length gowns of pale yellow nylon were worn by the bridesmaids, with Mrs. Lorne Farrow, sister of the bride, as matron-of-honor and Miss Patricia Telford, niece of the groom, as bridesmaid. They carried bouquets of pink and white carnations. The flower-girl was Miss Marlene Farrow, niece of the bride, and she was dressed in white nylon over turquoise and had a white shoulder length veil and also carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Bill McEugan, brother-in-law of the bride was her attendant. The ushers were Jim Anderson, cousin of the bride, and John Duggan, brother-in-law of the groom.

A lovely reception was held at the Pina Grove Bar-B-Q, Bobcaygeon with 48 guests attending. The bride's mother revelled and was wearing a blue dress and matching hat with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted her and chose a green two piece dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

For a wedding trip to Ojawa, the bride chose a pink linen two piece dress and jacket with pale yellow accessories and a corsage of yellow baby mums. The happy couple will reside in Barry's Green.

NOTICED ... along the way

They really packed them in for the Progressive Conservative nomination meeting in Lindsay on Saturday. Some people may be interested in seeing how many of their acquaintances they can recognize in the picture of the crowd seen (top picture) from a vantage point above the LCI auditorium.

The second picture down is the very first one taken of the successful nominee for the provincial P.C. candidacy — Glen Hodgson of Haliburton after he was. It was taken immediately following announcement of his victory and before he had time to reach the platform from which he was to make his speech of appreciation. That's Joseph (Joe) Jenkins of Little Britain with his back to the camera and the happy lady on the right is Mr. Hodgson's wife.

It was a terrifically hot spot to hold a nomination meeting but some people came prepared to battle the heat. One of them was Mrs. Grace Theroux, of Lindsay, third picture down, seen equipped with a fan and a cool bottle of pop. On her left, is the lady who was believed to be the oldest delegate at the convention. She is Mrs. W. H. Hick, proud mother of one of the aspiring candidates — A. E. (Berl) Hick who stayed in the ring right up to the second last elimination ballot when the finals saw Glen Hodgson (Haliburton) and Roy Windsor (Minden) avail the delegates' pleasure. Mrs. Hick didn't mention her age but she won't have to be better prepared to celebrate her 80th birthday ... it's well in the past.

One meets many old friends and acquaintances at these affairs. A lot of Lindsay people will remember Fred Broad, (bottom picture) for years chief caretaker at the Collegiate Institute. Now "Living the life of Riley" up Wilberforce way not far from the church. Fred is it to town for the convention and he is to meet a host of old friends when Carmen Byrnie, former public school teacher in Lindsay.

Gala water festival planned at Peterboro

A gala water festival, one of the largest to be staged in Ontario, will take place in downtown Peterborough on June 22nd. The location will be Little Lake on the Trent Waterway, and the occasion will be the official opening of Beaverdam Park, which borders the lake.

Events will include such water sports as canoe races from Little Lake, and a group of Peterborough's famed lifeguarders will be on duty to assist swimmers. In full regalia, and followed by a giant parade of various horsepower classes, a "float of the lake" contest — a parade of boats, free boat rides and an evening fireworks display over the lake are also among the many events of interest planned for the day.

The official party for the opening ceremonies, hosted by Department of Lands and Forests minister the Hon. Kento Roberts, Q.C., will arrive at Beaverdam by 11 a.m. and will be met by a group of Curve Lake Indians in canoe. In full regalia, and followed by a giant parade of various horsepower classes, a "float of the lake" contest — a parade of boats, free boat rides and an evening fireworks display over the lake are also among the many events of interest planned for the day.

Wife, father and mother join in celebration

When Glen Hodgson of Hailberton won the nomination to carry the Progressive Conservative banner in the next Ontario election at Lindsay on Saturday, his wife, father and mother joined in celebrating his achievement. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hodgson are seen in the appealing Kenlin Studio photo above with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hodgson immediately following the close of balloting in the record-making nomination contest which saw seven opponents bow to the superior forces supporting the winning nominee. Glen Hodgson said he would start work immediately getting things lined up for the forthcoming provincial election which is being freely fought for early October.

35th anniversary celebrates honored by family, friends

Blackstock (PNS)—A happy time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilson, R. R. 1, Burkston, when over 100 friends called to congratulate them on their 35th wedding anniversary.

Their sons, Glen and Glen met the guests on the lawn and ushered them to the home where two daughters, Mrs. Bob Brinkman (Mary) and Miss Jean Wilson received.

Quiet wedding at Fenelon

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — Rev. M. C. Fisher officiated at a quiet wedding in Friendship House of Fenelon Falls United Church when Sandra May Lovett, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lovett, of Robicock, became the bride of George Allen Ross Arcott, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Arcott, of Fenelon Falls.

The attendants at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. James L. Scobbie.

Spring Tea at Fenelon

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — A delightful Spring Tea was held in the Rectory of St. James Anglican Church Fenelon Falls under the auspices of the Parish Workers and the W. —

Guests were welcomed by Mrs. J. B. Harrison. The lace-covered tea table was adorned with a beautiful bouquet of lilacs and tulips, flanked by lighter layers. During the afternoon the tea was poured by Mrs. Griffin and Miss Alice Nye, president of the Parish Workers.

A bake sale was held in conjunction with the tea and Mrs. Dunham and Miss Mathewson were in charge of this well stocked table.

Cashier for the afternoon was Miss Messenger, president of the W.A. The tea was well patronized by the ladies of the village who enjoyed a happy hour of friendly fellowship.

Mary F. McKenzie

Following an illness of several months Miss Mary Fletcher McKenzie died in Bethany unit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Florence Johnston.

Formerly of Toronto, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. NNE McKenzie. For many years she was Principal of Shaw's Business College in Toronto. After her retirement she spent her summers here and the winter months in Florida. She was a member of the United Church, of the W.M.S. and U.C.W.

The funeral service was held at the McDougall and Brown Funeral Home, 648 St. Clair Ave. W. Toronto, with burial in Prospect Cemetery.

Surviving are her sister Mrs. Florence Johnston of Bethany and two nephews Dr. Kenneth N. McKenzie of Toronto.

POT SHOTS by "The Maidens"

It has been my pleasure for some time now to visit the Festival Theatre on Friday nights — to enjoy the pictures they show. The calibre of the picture is high — first-run pictures are shown here before either Lindsay, and in some cases, Toronto. They have good pictures and a comfortable theatre — but — you sure won't enjoy the pictures.

The Festival theatre is poorly disciplined. Those who attend with the hope of seeing and hearing a good evening's entertainment are in for a disappointment — there is so much controlling noise and confusion that the possibility of hearing the picture is impossible.

There are uncontrolled whistling, cell calls, off-colour remarks — loud and forceful laughter — and even fire works. There are also the characters who seem to be able to hush it all and regale the audience with this type of thing from time to time.

As I say — the pictures are excellent — BUT — the audience is uncontrolled — unless some sort of control is exercised by the management, older theatre goers will stay home and the characters will take over the theatre even more than they have now.

With the advent of the warm weather the black flies and mosquitoes are out in full force. Working around the lakes this time of year puts you right near them.

In the vicinity of Maple Lake last week I heard a comment in the back behind me — I turned around to investigate and found a mosquito attacking a small partridge. Taking a stick, I beat off the mosquito and let the partridge fly back into the bush.

A group of us were sitting around the other night enjoying some light and stereo music. The host was telling us about the equipment and it was very interesting — he came up with a piece of logic though we found hard to digest.

"In order to really appreciate this type of music," he said, "you have to be sitting on BOTH sides of the room."

Despite the warm weather I'm sitting here in the living room wrapped in a sweater — coughing my head off. This is what you get for being used to working outdoors then going to Toronto and screwing around in these air-conditioned theatres. The temperature degree drop is too much for us country lads.

Hailborton is certainly becoming cliffed. The approach to the village, along Head Lake, formerly the location of the Bannan Lumber Co., is slowly but surely becoming a beautiful park and picnic area.

The main street is being spruced up — with store owners painting and modernizing their stores.

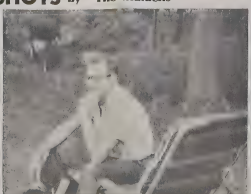

Lance Easton, with his new Red and White store, located where the Food Lockers were, is a credit to the business section.

The new Irwin Building, which houses Best's new place of business, doesn't take a back seat to any other property.

Hailborton was so busy when I went through on the weekend that you could hardly find a place to park.

The new bridge is under construction.

The Community T.V. tower has been installed and the company under Bob Bishop Jr. are busily engaged in strapping some five miles of coaxial cable to bring better TV viewing to the community.

According to Bob, Minden, next, as soon as they have been interested to get into it to the public.

About eight of us were sitting in Mervin Craig's coffee bar just outside of Minden enjoying a coffee when the door opened and Fenwick came in.

You must let me buy your coffee," he said.

This came as quite a shock because there isn't a closer man with a buck than this one old gentleman.

"Yes," he continued, "you must be my guests — have a coffee on me."

As he said this he moved around the table passing out small, salmon-colored business cards.

They read — "Have a coffee on me — compliments of the "Little Chick Inn", Boscung Lake."

Ah, well. The Finch here is in the right place. We have coffee coming to us the next time we head north up Highway 35.

Last Friday night, a little after six o'clock, and about half way between Minden and Kinmount I had a ring-side seat to an exhibition of just about the most in "bone-headed" driving that has been my luck to witness in a good many years.

I was going south and meeting four cars and two big trucks. The big RED truck attempted to pass the whole line-up — he suddenly saw that he couldn't make it — this is taking place at a speed of at least 50 miles per hour and between hitting his brakes and the other cars slowing down to let him in, and me stopping my car on the shoulder of the road to give him passing space, no damage was done. If nothing else, he was offering his female passenger and the cars he was passing a few moments of thrill.

John — with a driver like this with very little effort on his part — he could put you out of the trucking business. It would seem a shame to neck up such a nice, new red truck.

I have had several inquiries about Harley Cummings' book on Hailborton. All I can tell you is that it is in the touch with the Lands and Forests office in Toronto. You have better luck than I have had — I wrote them a couple of months ago and so far they haven't answered the letter. This is a good book and it appears the department isn't too interested in getting it to the public.

Well, that's all for this week. Drive carefully and enjoy yourselves.

"Yes," he continued, "you must be my guests — have a coffee on me."

Flexi Tooth is an entirely new idea in pick-up teeth for balers and combines. Its greater flexibility allows the tooth to be hinged closer to the ground and Flexi Tooth will pick up more crop per acre than conventional steel teeth. These new plastic teeth will handle more gently and reduce leaf shattering. Mounted in rubber strips, Flexi Tooth on combine and baler pick-ups will ride over or bypass most obstacles, throwing fewer stones in the windrow. Flexi Tooth is tougher and will outlast ordinary teeth, while replacement teeth cost from 30% to 40% less than conventional steel teeth.

Cartwright residents celebrate their golden wedding anniversary

Blackstock (PNS)—On June 4, 1912, Annie Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stewart, and Oscar McQuade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McQuade were united in marriage at her home in Blackstock by Rev. Isaac Seel.

This being the 50th anniversary of their wedding their four daughters and two sons arranged a celebration. On June 4th a reception was held at the home of their daughter Beth (Mrs. Roger Oke), Port Perry, when 220 friends called to congratulate them.

Both are lifelong residents of Cartwright Township except for a few early years when the new pair lived on Scugog Island.

Guests were received by Beth and her two sisters, Norma (Mrs. John Gay) and Audrey (Mrs. Don Plain) and sister-in-law, Mrs. Stuart McQuade. Another sister Leah (Mrs. Clifford Kerry) having undergone bone surgery recently was unable to assist.

The bride of 50 years wore a dress of teal blue and carried a bouquet with corsages of white roses, and the groom wore a gold caravat.

Seven grandchildren presented the couple with 12 gold roses. The family gave them lovely rugs with settings of Alaska Black Diamonds. Relatives, friends and neighbors joined in presenting a walnut dining table and chairs.

A number of other gifts of crystal, gold coloured china, glassware with gold tracings, stationery with pen and wools of rooms and mums. Gifts of money were received from Mr. and Mrs. Orville McKee, Mrs. Lorne McQuade and Betty all of Calgary, Alberta.

Pouring tea were Mrs. Oscar Edwards and Mrs. Victor Haydon (flower girl at their wedding) both of Port Perry, and coasts of the bride and serving the guests were two granddaughters Misses Suzanne Gay of Courville and Frances Burns of Bowmanville. Pouring tea in the evening were Mrs. Sam McKee, sister of the groom and Mrs. Sidney McQuade, sister-in-law of the groom. Miss Muriel McKee, Mrs. Dave Wilson, Mrs. Roy Barber, Mrs. Stuart McQuade and Mrs. John Heaton, Toronto.

Guests attending the reception were from Galt, Toronto, Ajax, Bowmanville, Courville, Port Perry, Blackstock, Neustadt, Cadmus, Yelverton, Oroso and Lindsay.

A lovely framed plaque of congratulations was received from the government of Ontario Provincial Secretary, John Yernool. Telegrams were received from Premier Winner of the fifty dollar in the Legion draw for June Mr. "Sonny" Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Harpell and family of Dunbrack were callers of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Lake and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Armstrong of Pension Falls, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Benson. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nesbitt and family of Oshawa, were Sunday visitors of relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Graf and son, Gerrard, of Michener, are at their summer home here for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Fountain and wife of Norfolk, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Roulty.

A shower was held in the United Church Hall for Mr. and Mrs. Bill Griffin who lost all their possessions in a fire that destroyed their home recently. They received a good sum of money, household appliances and a new car.

A LOVELIER YOU

By MARY RUP MILLER

LIPSTICK MANAGES, of all cosmetics, lipstick probably offers the greatest boon to the feminine face. But when it appears as thick, gloomy and clogging, it is entirely out of countenance. Very bad manners, too! Admiringly confining lipstick to its rightful place is not always easy. It helps if you apply the color in several thin layers and blot with facial tissue after each line has time to set. Treated as an aid, the procedure gives the natural, translucent look that is now more admired than heavy shades of color.

Oilier preventatives against smudging are based on the principle of "unity is as pretty does."

Press on lips.

To avoid staining clothes while applying into them a dab of tissue is folded between the lips of the lips. The color is removed from the line with even blotting, before the face is washed or the best lipstick is applied.

A level or face cloth is never used for lipstick removal. The rim of glasses and eye and nose protection by lightly blotting the lips with a tissue napkin before sleeping a few hours. The lipstick is saved by the likelihood of the lips, along with the expertise of lipstick applications.

Very pretty lipstick manners, thank!

Reports and Remarks

Alcohol's promise is a false. Its initial buoying action gave rise to the belief that it is a stimulant, but it is a depressant which acts on the Retlicula Formula of the brain — the area that controls judgement and memory. Alcohol eventually disintegrates this area.

THE SUGAR MESS
The nickel bar of candy is headed either for extinction or a drastic reduction in size. This is because of the runaway rise in the price of sugar, already reflected in higher costs for consumers. Speculators have made the most of the situation, driving the price up to unreasonably high levels.

The reason for the price rise, according to the sugar industry, is a worldwide shortage due primarily to production failures in Castro's Cuba and the impact of severe weather on Europe's crops. But this is an excuse rather than an explanation. The real culprit is the sugar lobby, both domestic and foreign, which is responsible for the protectionist legislation that prevails for sugar in the

Until last year American producers were protected by artificially high price supports, while foreign producers adhered to an individual sugar to the United States; it adhered to an individual quota system that committed

This audit consisted of a detailed examination of all major

The Board conducted a financial examination of all the municipality's operations for 1962, together with those of Coboc and the various school boards.

Revenue Fund Balance Sheet Statement B

The large fund balance of $50,828.46 arose through the disbursements of $20,000.00 at the close of the year to meet obligations which were due until early in 1963. Under the circumstances, it would have been anticipated obtaining the loan until the succeeding year. Had the loan been obtained, the amount of the loan would have been $30,828.46.

The amount due from the Province represents the estimated balance of the 1982 Highway Improvement Subsidy and programme. The usual grant from the Government of Canada for this programme was not received for either 1981 or 1982 and now, as a result of a thirty-two per cent increase in the subsidy, the Province is in a position to pay the balance of the 1982 subsidy.

The outstanding taxes of nearly $22,000.00 are more than the unpaid balance at the close of 1981. The present tax is a substantial sum from one taxpayer and is understood to be recent.

Statement of Revenue and Expenditure Statement D.
As budget figures were not available, the corresponding revenue figures for 1961 have been inserted for comparative purposes.
There is a reduction of approximately $20,609.00 in tax revenue.

Bonnie McFadyen married in period gown of white

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Charles McDonald

The marriage of Bonnie by a crown of satin roses. She, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald, was solemnized in Cambridge, Ontario, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. McDonald, 74 Cambridge St., London, Ontario, on Monday, June 26. The groom, Mr. Herbert Charles McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. McDonald, 74 Cambridge St., London, Ontario, was accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. McDonald, 74 Cambridge St., London, Ontario. The bride was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. McDonald, 74 Cambridge St., London, Ontario. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. McDonald, pastor of the St. Paul's Episcopal Church, London, Ontario. The reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. McDonald, 74 Cambridge St., London, Ontario. The bride wore a gown of white satin with a long train and a crown of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo. The ceremony was attended by a large number of guests.

Newest in local dining spots

The newest in local dining spots is to be found at the Bonfire Bar-O-Rama restaurant on Highway 35 south. The picture above shows a section of the new downstairs dining room which opened a short time ago. Proprietress Mrs. Irene Haughton says the attractive eating place will be used to handle overflow from the main dining room, catering to diners and to forth. Among other things, it provides accommodation for an orchestra.

TO PREVENT any sticking to the bottom of the pan. Home Economists at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, suggest that you line the pan with wax paper and then brush with unsalted fat.

Serve vegetables as nutritionists are cooked, say Nutritionists at Macdonald Institute, Guelph. Keeping vegetables hot for a long period reduces the vitamin content.

Season grids of waffle iron before using them to prevent waffles from sticking. Home Economists at Macdonald Institute, Guelph say. To season, brush cold grids with vegetable oil or shortening. Heat to baking temperature and let cool a gain.

In a spare moment, take a ruler and measure those ready-made pane and pie plates that don't have dimensions written on them, suggest Food experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph. By marking the sizes on the bottoms of the pans with red nail polish, guesswork will be eliminated the next time you bake.

Try using that small amount of leftover ice cream, slightly softened, as a topping for desserts says the Food Department at Macdonald Institute, Guelph. With this idea there is no whipping necessary and no beaters to wash.

Basement Floor Cleanup

Be sure that your basement floor is dry before laying linoleum or tile, or painting the floor. Test for moisture by having a rubber mat on the concrete and leaving for about three days. Then lift it, and immediately examine the surface. If the floor is even slightly moist, do not proceed with new finish.

BEST PEELING

Best peel easily if dipped into cold water immediately after they are boiled. Don't soak them, though, they bleed easily. And remember to leave about an inch of stem on the beans when cooking. Cut too closely, they REALLY bleed!

Brass and Nickel

When the finish wears off brass or nickel fixtures, you can do a fine job of renovation by applying a coat of wax with a quick-drying enamel to match the rest of the room.

ASPARAGUS A TASTY SPRING-TIME MEAL

Ontario asparagus is tasty and tempting for jaded appetites, say Food and Nutrition experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph. It contains large amounts of vitamin A and significant amounts of iron and vitamin C.

Buy crisp, straight, fresh stalks with compact tips. One pound will serve 4 people and consists of about 18 stalks. If the asparagus is to be kept for a few days before serving, stand the stalks upright in a pan containing 2 inches of cold water, keep refrigerated and the stalks remain fresh.

To prepare the asparagus for cooking, break off each stalk as far down as it snaps easily, remove scales with the back of a knife, wash under running water to remove dirt.

To cook the whole stalks, boil in salted water for 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Place fish sticks on rice and top with sauce. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

To cook cut-up asparagus, spread it in a shallow skillet, sprinkle with salt, pour on 1 inch of boiling water, and simmer about 10 minutes.

Serve with salt, pepper and butter, or a hot cream sauce.

HOW CAN I ???

Q. How can I improvise some finger paint for my children?

A. Roll laundry starch and a few soap chips to a paste, tint this with food coloring, and add a small quantity of glycerine to keep the mixture moist. Place each color in a separate bowl or dish — being sure, of course, that the paint has cooled before tiny fingers are dipped into it.

Q. How can I remove perspiration stains from fabrics?

A. On unwashables, these sometimes give way only to dry-cleaning, brushing off when it has dried. On washables, if ordinary laundering fails, sponge the spots with vinegar.

Q. How can I best polish tortoise shell?

A. By rubbing in floor powder with a bit of soft cloth. Rub afterwards with the palm of your hand.

FISH STICKS INDIAN STYLE

1 package (16 ounces) fish sticks, 1/4 cup finely chopped onion, 2 tablespoons fat, 1/4 teaspoon curry powder, 1 can (10 ounces) cream of celery soup, 1/3 cup milk, 3 cups cooked rice.

Bake fish sticks in hot oven (450 deg. F.) for 10 minutes. Cook onion in fat until tender, about 3 minutes. Stir in curry powder. Add soup and milk gradually, stirring until well blended. Simmer for 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Place fish sticks on rice and top with sauce. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

HARVESTS MORE HAY WITH LESS LEAF LOSS HARVESTS MORE GRAIN WITH FEWER STONES

Flexi Tooth is an entirely new idea in pick-up teeth for balers and combines. Its greater flexibility allows the teeth to be lowered closer to the ground and Flexi Tooth will pick up more crop area than conventional steel teeth. These new plastic teeth will handle hay more gently and reduce leaf shattering. Flexi Tooth on combine and baler pick-ups will ride over or bypass most obstacles, throwing fewer stones in the windrow. Flexi Tooth is mounted in rubber strips, Flexi Tooth is much quieter. The superior self-dumping effect further minimizes dust. Flexi Tooth is tougher and will outlast ordinary teeth, while replacement teeth cost from 36% to 40% less than conventional steel teeth.

Fish story?

Out of season muskie swims around Bobcaygeon dock for three days waiting to return attractive lure.

There's a fish story in the news at Lindsay today which can't be amplified and entered in the competition when next we discuss fishing with a fellow-prevaricator but this hunk was different.

"Obviously feeling that he was a fish of some importance, he came to the dock and entered in the competition when next we discuss fishing with a fellow-prevaricator but this hunk was different."

"Although it is a common fishermen speak the language of fish, unfortunately this fish didn't speak the language of fishermen, consequently he spent three days swimming around the dock before the people at the boat world realized the purpose of his visit."

A DRAMATIC CURE OF HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

In at least 90 per cent of patients who have high blood pressure, we don't know the real cause. How we stumbled on the word I don't know, but we have a habit in medicine of calling some conditions we don't understand "essential". Therefore, we call most cases of high blood pressure "essential hypertension", because we haven't all over for years previously. They de- cided to operate. They found a large mass around the kidney, which measured 12 by 8 inches. They removed the kidney and the pathological re- port disclosed that the mass was a cyst, which was prob- ably due to an old hematoma (col- lection of blood, which was prob- ably due to an injury in the past.

The patient's blood pressure immediately returned to nor- mal after operation, and has remained so for the subse- quent two years.

Interesting? Quite so. And they tell of a 29-year-old man who was complaining of a constant headaches and severe nose bleeds; who had a sys- tolic blood pressure of 240 and a diastolic pressure of 140. They took special X-rays of his kid- neys by using pyelograms dur- ing a cystoscopic examination. They found something wrong with his right kidney.

MASS AROUND KIDNEY

He gave no history of injury to this kidney, but said that he had played football around ten years previously. They de- cided to operate. They found a large mass around the kidney, which measured 12 by 8 inches. They removed the kidney and the pathological re- port disclosed that the mass was a cyst, which was prob- ably due to an old hematoma (col- lection of blood, which was prob- ably due to an injury in the past.

It is interesting that grieu- fance is also the drug which works so well in tubercular infections (ringworm, etc.)

JOHN SPARANCK

U.S. Senator from Alabama U.S. Senator John Sparanck, whose home state of Alabama is currently the latest target of anti-segregation demon- strations, said in Montreal that he is "not disturbed" because the U.S. South is making racial peace. "I was born and raised in the South and I know this is still the best nation," he said. "Naturally, there was an inequality in the facilities in the former years, but I believe we have been making considerable progress."

Mrs. Melville McKnight opens Haliburton UCW meeting

Haliburton (PNS) — The regular meeting of the U. C. W. was held in the United Church Hall, Mrs. Melville McKnight the president wel- comed those present and ap- proved the meeting with a poem entitled "In Doubt."

The worship period was conducted by Mrs. Chambers who used the hymn, where cross the crowded ways of life. The scripture was read, closed by singing "Lord, Speak to Me that I May Speak." Mrs. Ross Blaine in- troduced Mrs. Boddy who is supervisor of Tranel House and she in turn introduced Mrs. Jensen who is superin- tendent of Tranel House for girls at Port Oliver.

Mrs. Jensen gave much information about the work carried on at Tranel House, their aims and ambitions and how fruitful their labors have been in helping these girls who are sent there as a rule from the courts. Mrs. A. K. Kew thanked the speaker in a few well chosen words.

Recommendations from the executive were dealt with, plans for a rummage sale and home baking sale were final- ized. Mrs. Pettie agreed to act as convener of the wel- coming committee.

A date set for July 19th, was set aside for the annual summer bazaar. It was de- cided once again to have a pot luck supper preceding the June meeting.

Donations were handed in to the treasurer for extra projects.

Mrs. Herb. Worsley Cameron WI hostess

The WI meeting of the Cameron W. I. was held held in the home of Mrs. Herb. Worsley of a good attend- ance. The president, Mrs. G. Goodhand opened the meeting in the usual manner.

The Roll Call was answered by singing a number of psalms and telling what office he held. It was de- cided to go on a bus trip early in June. Delegates were ap- pointed to attend the Dis- trict Annual to be held in Balfour United Church. The members are to enter a wedding party in July. Mrs. Inglis tried out the members in a memory contest which was won by Mrs. H. Worsley.

This was followed by an interesting reading given by Mrs. B. Northey, The Pub- lications Convener. Mrs. A. Anderson gave her paper which was divided into two parts. The first part in dealing with laws passed in 1863 concerning Human Rights. The second part was on the giving of tips in ho- tels, motels, etc. A social time with a lovely lunch fol- lowed an enjoyable afternoon.

Talkative Cassius Clay of Louisville says that British Heavyweight Champion Henry Cooper is the strongest fighter he's ever met. Clay scored a fifth round technical knockout over Cooper at London's Wembley Stadium after being floored in the fourth round. Says Cassius: "Don't take anything away from him . . . he's the strongest fighter I've ever met and certainly the hardest puncher I've come up against". He added: "man, how he hits, especially that left hook. Jack Nilon, the adviser for heavyweight champion Sonny Liston, told Clay, "I've come from three-thousand-500-miles to get you, the price will be right. You can have the fight in September." Clay had said he was ready for Liston, but only if the price was right. The boastful young fighter had predicted that Cooper would fall in five rounds. But he denied that he tried to carry Cooper in the third and fourth rounds. Asked whether he would have a fight prior to the Liston bout, he said, "Maybe I'll have another warmup." The 21-year-old Louisville fighter predicted that Liston—who he

Canada's 19th Governor-General Since Confederation
His Excellency, The Rt. Hon. Georges P. Vanier

As Dominion Day pageantry on Parliament Hill in Ottawa culminates in the ceremonial mace past by crack units of Canada's armed forces, many memories must pass through the mind of the tall, upright figure at the saluting box: His Excellency, Major-General, the Rt. Hon. Georges P. Vanier, D.S.O., M.C., C.D.—Canada's Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief—can look back on a varied, adventurous life. Long years as a young officer amid the mud, smoke and trenches of France, three decades of overseas duty in the diplomatic service, his exciting escape in a small fishing boat, just ahead of the panzer divisions, from continental Europe (where he had been Canadian Minister to France), and subsequent rescue at sea by a Canadian destroyer. Other recollections might be of Allied landings in North Africa or of his appointment as first Canadian Ambassador to the new France which arose in the wake of German retreat. A cultured, distinguished, military man from Quebec, Canada's Governor-

Speaking of books — Mr. A. S. Walroth, District Forester in Lindsay was kind enough to write me concerning Marley Commey's book "Early Days in Haliburton".

Mr. Walroth also enclosed a list of other publications that should prove interesting and educational to interested readers.

Drop in and see them at the Lands and Forests Office as you will find them very cooperative.

Thank you, Mr. Walroth, for writing. It shows your department is interested in maintaining good "public relations."

My problem, wasn't so much that I couldn't get a book of the high priest of the Lands and Forests, either doesn't read his mail or some forty second clerk got it and ignored what was in it in any event what I was interested in

was using parts of it from time to time in the columns "quotes" etc. But, as I say they apparently don't read their mail too closely in head office.

They should take a page from your book — it is a courtesy to answer your mail.

What's in a name — quite a bit sometimes especially when the name is able to invoke memories from the past. We were sitting around the other night when Fenwick dropped in — he had a friend named — he introduced him around and his name started quite an evening of merriment.

His name — "Luke Larkin". The name Luke Larkin brought back memories of the "Huskie Algos" days. Everyone surely remembers the story "Struggling Upward", or "Luke Larkin's Luck".

"Any relation to this man," we asked.

"No," came the reply, "Just a friend of Fenwick's."

"I've come a bit of writing from time to time but I've sort of gotten away from it but the "Finch" here knew after me and I'm going to do more of it."

This remark seemed to sum up the present-day Luke Larkin but we spent a little time going over Marley Algos and some of his books.

Almost 100 years ago Algos wrote his story "Ragged Dick" and for the next thirty years it was the most popular of his over and over again with a different set and a different setting but always the same theme, from rags to riches.

When I was growing up these Algos books were the popular ones — there was also, The Boy's Own — Chum — The Tom Swift Series — and of course the ones you read "under cover". The Nick Carter and Buffalo Bill series. The format was always the same — The "good guys" always win and the "bawse"

By today's standards Algos's heroes may seem to be stupid fools from the country who were so glibly it was painful — but — there was a reason about them as they struggled to make their way against unassailable odds.

The hero was always the out of self-interest, honour, manliness, generous to a fault, trusting and believing in his fellow men.

By honest, hard work and being able to have the luck to meet some well-meaning millionaire who took a fancy to him — they conquered all.

The format was always the same — The "good guys" always win and the "bawse"

In this day and age, thrift is no longer a virtue — in fact it is almost a peril. We are now conditioned to live beyond our means — Instamint buying is the accepted way of life. Credit, something that used to be a valued commodity, is now available to practically everyone. Our children are taught — how to spend — not how to save. We must realize of course that in Algos's time the dollar was worth one hundred cents and stood for something. Today we spend them without thought to their worth. Our conditioning is such that the dollar value means nothing to us.

An Algos hero today would be nothing more than a penniless wanderer and as such would be cut off from all human attachments.

The Algos Hero was the standard for all young men — study hard, study yourself — burn the midnight oil — study for self improvement. Can you imagine doing this today? You'd spend all this time scripping and saving and bawling your brains out looking for advancement — then, when

He is in my estimation a stout fellow with a skill and inter- we'll have some with eating story-teller. This skill "Bill" and some of his experience out and we will miss once.

In the Algos days — the Hero pulled up his roots to go to New York and make a million dollars. Today, in business house means little or nothing — in the "Organization" home is wherever you hang your hat.

There is so much to Algos we could go on for hours — but — we have no space. The Hero may be gone but his legacy will never be forgotten for there is a little bit of "Algos Hero" in each of us.

Story-telling is almost a lost art. The main source of pain was always the Story-teller. Long before the printed word — history was handed down from generation to generation by the Story-teller.

This is almost a lost art — I had the privilege the other

One other facet of the Algos Hero — he always came from a small town and always from "good" in New York City — there apparently is no other place for an Algos Hero to win in — it has to be a good

Possibly because Algos was such an intellectual man himself his heroes were everything he wished to be. Money is the main theme of the Algos book and they are classics of acquisition. The secret of money — was saving. Unfold wealth and success came to him who "saved".

Silica fibres have been produced with tensile strength of 1,000,000 pounds (about 500 tons per square inch). Normal manufacturing processes cause surface damage which seriously impairs the strength of the fibres. Rolls Royce scientists say they have solved this problem by coating the newly-produced fibre with aluminum metal as it is drawn. This coating protects the surface from damage and allows the fibre to be embedded successfully in metal which retains its strength when machined to shape or rolled out into sheets.

"WE HAVE FOUND A BETTER WAY"

"Here is a people composed of two distinct races speaking different languages, with religious and social and municipal and educational institutions totally different, with sectional hostilities of such a character as to render government for many years well nigh impossible with a constitution so unjust in the view of one section as to justify any resort to enforce a remedy. And, yet here we sit, patiently and temperately discussing how these great evils and hostilities may be lessened and amiable

1962 having been such these great evils and hostilities may justly and amicably be swept away forever. We are endeavoring to adjust harmoniously greater difficulties than have plunged other countries into all the horrors of civil war. We are striving to do peacefully and satisfactorily what Holland and Belgium, after years of strife, were unable to accomplish. We are seeking by calm discussion to settle questions that Austria and Hungary, that Denmark and Germany, that Russia and Poland, could only crush by the from heel of armed forces. We are seeking to do without foreign intervention that which deluged in blood the sunny plains of Italy. We are striving to settle forever issues hardly less momentous than those that have rent the neighboring Republic and are now exposing it to the horrors of civil war. Have we not then great cause of thankfulness that we have found a better way for the solution of our troubles than that which has entailed on other countries such deplorable results?

affected by this decision we are about to give to an extent which at this moment we may be unable to estimate, but assuredly the welfare for many years of 4 millions of people hangs on our decision. It may be that some among us will live to see the day when as a result of this measure a great and powerful people will have grown up on these lands—when the boundless forests all around us shall give way to smiling fields and thriving towns and cities and when one united government shall extend from sea to sea.”

George Brown

Where manufacturing profits are concerned, a nickel on the sales dollar — give or take a fraction of a cent — is very much par for the course. The highest figure recorded was in 1950, when it hit 7.1 cents; the lowest, 1960, when it fell to an abysmal 4.4 cents. Its subsequent recovery from this low watermark still leaves it three tenths of a cent below the 5.4 cents average for the past 15 years.

If companies earning a net profit on sales of five percent were to distribute the whole amount of their shareholders, this would hardly rate as an excessive return. But no soundly-run company dare be so generous. It must provide for re-equipment, expansion and future contingencies, as much in the interests of its employees as of anyone else.

And so, in manufacturing in 1962, shareholders had to be content with a sum equivalent to only 2.6 cents on the sales dollar, leaving nearly as much again to be plough-

The shareholder's return, it will be seen, like the profit on the sales dollar of which it is but a part, is something less than sensational, considering the importance of his role and the risks he runs. That these risks are far from being minimal is apparent in the fact that of 998 companies surveyed by the C.M.A., no fewer than 158 lost money on their operations, pointing up once again that ours is, in truth, a high profit-and-risk economy.

Such are the simple, unadorned facts about manufacturing profits in 1962. They deserve the widest circulation.

A meeting of the Trustees of the Somerville T.S.A., held in the Burnt River School, ended by J. Halliday that the All members present except Mr. Morrison.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted on the motion of J. Halliday, seconded by Mrs. Hopkins.

Regarding the work to be done at S.S. 4, Mrs. Hopkins and Mr. Halliday were asked to see what arrangements could be made. Mr. Barry, Arch, seconded by Mrs. Hopkins, was present with the working to be done at the Burnt River school. These were studied and discussed. The Secretary was asked to contact the A.O.H. for his approval of those plans. Moved by J. Halliday seconded by Mrs. Hopkins the plan was to be moved.

cepted as presented.

Moved by Mrs. Hopkins seconded by J. Halliday that the All members present except Mr. Morrison, be authorized to advertise for tenders for the new school at Burnt River.

Moved by Mrs. Hopkins, seconded by J. Halliday that a cup be purchased and awarded to the Kinnmont Music Festival, under the direction of Mr. Martin.

Moved by R. Handley, seconded by Mrs. Hopkins, that the beginning September 1st, 1968 tuition fees be charged for all non resident pupils.

Moved by J. Halliday, seconded by R. Handley all members, the equipment of the horses, the training, and the musical ride.

"The origin of the R.C.M.P. Musical Ride" appears to have been lost entirely, and was probably originated by the cavalry regiments of Great Britain.

Kinnmont, and members of the Lindsay Central Exhibition Board heard Col. R. E. Muir of the R.C.M.P., Peterborough detachment describe the Ride as an original cavalry regiment with much of the dress rooted in cavalry and mounted "trifles."

"The corporal had been invited by the board to speak on the Ride which is to be the star attraction at the coming Lindsay Exhibition this year.

He told his audience that he wished to give them an insight as to the origin of the ride, the uniform equipment, the horses, the equipment of the horses, the training, and the musical ride.

He pointed out that it appeared that the first musical ride had been organized in 1876 under the direction of one S. M. Belcher. — just three years before the North West Mounted Police force came into being.

"In the years that have followed," he said, "the ride has journeyed abroad to participate in many international exhibitions, coronations, etc. and has become a familiar sight in many countries."

"Like the ride" he continued, "the dress, and equipment used are of historical interest." "Mounted" tradition.

"The scarlet tunic, adopted because it was considered a symbol of honesty and fair dealing."

"The ride brimmed hat is a multicoloured version of the famed cowboy hat — the lance, dating back to early times, is a traditional part of the Mounties' equipment."

"It was intended as a march on the 'Originals' for a troop of the police in 1874, chiefly to impress the Indians who love pageantry."

"The horses used in the ride are now raised on the department own ranch in Cyprus, H.H. Sack, the site of old Fort Walsh, by the N.W.M.P. in 1875 and referred to as 'the cradle of the force'."

"The ride is no longer used for actual police duties, said the speaker, only in maintained mounted activities to retain the link with tradition."

The ride is performed by a full troop of 32 men and horses and is composed of a variety of intricate movements to the accompaniment of music.

Many long hours of hard work and training by both men and horses are required in "bringing the ride" to standards which must attain before it starts on tour, he added.

Impropriety non-existent, official says

Frost defends Nugent's position

The property holding the Hotel Benson and other business premises in Lindsay is to be sold by auction, W.T. Nugent.

W. M. McIntyre, right hand man to Ontario Premier John Robarts told the "Post" this morning that Mr. Nugent had secured a request from the prime minister to sell his hotel premises at Lindsay.

Mr. Nugent, who is vice chairman of the Ontario Liquor License Board, was told by Prime Minister Robarts on Thursday that he had the choice of selling his hotel property or resigning his position as a part-time job with the licensing board. The storm blew up when the press attacked the government for allowing an allegedly improper situation to develop.

Mr. McIntyre, commenting on Mr. Nugent's decision to resign, said Mr. Nugent had never acted with any impropriety and the situation is not a conflict of interest.

"In being one who has been deemed out of keeping with the times," he said, "he has specified that a member of the Liquor License Board cannot hold an interest in any business connected with the premises. The ownership of a building housing a licensed hotel has not been defined as coming under this ban."

Former Ontario Premier John Robarts, who has never said that there has never been a breach or violation of conflict of interest with the board.

He said that Nugent's interest in the hotel was well known at the time of his appointment to the Liquor Control Board and his association with the hotel was one of the reasons he got the job.

The L.L.B. was said to have been concerned as a board of arbitration, with Nugent, because of his hotel experience and good reputation in the hotel industry, acting as a representative of the "wets."

Robarts said, "The L.L.B. has said, 'Mr. Robarts is the boss and the board is the servant. The ground rules, then Mr. Nugent will have to be prepared to abide by them.'"

But, he added, "Nugent doesn't deserve to be held up to ridicule for this reason."

He said that the hotel business was part of the terms of his employment years ago.

The former premier suggested that a code of rules should be drawn up by the board, and in government without running the risk of having their reputations damaged by a conflict of interest charges.

"You can't ask people to resign because of a conflict of interest," he said.

In his reply to Mr. Robarts' ultimatum, Mr. Nugent explained that he bought the property in 1938, six years before his appointment to the board.

Robarts said, "If I have observed the government, it was not done knowingly."

Claim protests flooded station over Hillier move

A storm of protest is reported to be rising here over the unexpected departure for Colborne of Howie Hillier, program director of Lindsay's radio station.

According to those close to the station, Hillier has been flocked with protest calls urging that Mr. Hillier be retained in his service.

Mr. Hillier told "The Post" that he would go to Colborne's Radio Station CHUR (1500 on the dial) where he felt there was greater opportunity for advancement.

Oakwood

Mr. Rowett Cole who had hip operation in R.M.H. where he was hospitalized for some weeks, has returned to his home. With the help of a chair walker he is able to move around the house. His many friends will be glad that he will soon be able to move around more comfortably than he has for some time.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Rowett Cole who were married recently. Their new home on the North street of the village of Oakwood. Several from the village witnessed the wedding.

Elaine E. Leach

Elaine E. Leach passed away accidentally, on April 26, 1968. She was in her 30's.

Born in Sunderland, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson. She received her education at a Sunderland. She was a member of Queen Street United Church and an employee of Rose Memorial Hospital for approximately nine years.

She is survived by her husband, Eddie, two daughters, Margaret and Marilyn; two sisters, Mrs. Clara Gordon, Mrs. Edmonia Allen, and Mrs. Jack Burdett (Lindsay). Her son, Jimmy, predeceased her.

The funeral will be held from 10 to 11 a.m. at the funeral home with the Rev. B. Garrett, of Queen Street United, officiating at the service at Riverside Cemetery.

Funeral services were held for the late English Bill Stuart, Vice Mayor of Lindsay, and his wife, Mrs. Stuart, in the presence of friends and family.

'Near Bobcaygeon, isn't it?'

Quipped one of the members of the Lindsay Planning Board at the regular meeting Thursday during a discussion on publicity for the town: "Bobcaygeon, isn't it?"

I happened to mention I came from Lindsay and received the reply: "Oh yes. I know that place. It's near Bobcaygeon, isn't it?"

Grossman came under fire three weeks ago when it was reported that he had sold a small number of shares in a plan that operated the Seaway Development. The Liquor Act states that a person who has control or license board shall have a direct or indirect interest in the liquor trade.

Robarts said there was no conflict of interest in Grossman's case.

Federal Building opening June 21st. Ontario June 21st. The Honourable Jean-Paul Deschamps, Minister of Public Works, announced Friday that the new federal building in Lindsay, Ontario would be officially opened Friday, June 21st, by Mr. B. Badami, his parliamentary secretary. The ceremony will take place at 3 p.m.

The new $561,175 building was constructed by McRae Construction of Whitby, for the Department of Public Works. Located at the corner of Cambridge and Russell streets, the new limestone and brick structure will provide improved accommodation for the Post Office Department, the Unemployment Insurance Commission and the Department of Veterans Affairs.

The new federal building has been designed with a full basement and a first floor half second floor. It will provide the present area of the second floor. The front of the building is of granite facing and will bear the Canadian Coat of Arms.

In making the announcement, Mr. Deschamps noted that this structure is a typical example of the new type of public buildings being erected across Canada to provide improved office space for various government departments.

Cecil L. Veale

After an illness of several months Cecil Laverne Veale passed away in Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay on May 30, 1963 in his 75th year.

Mr. Veale was born at Newleton, Cartwright Township on June 8th, 1888 only son of Alfred H. Veale and Eleanor Jackson, of Hartleton. They also had a daughter Ruby (Mrs. Charles Paine) and an adopted daughter (Mrs. Edward Hoover) now deceased.

Mr. Veale attended Central Public School, later helping his father in his North Newton Store. In 1907 he was married to Miss Mable Pettit. To this union were born four children: Clifford who died in infancy, Grace, who passed away in 1933 aged 22 years, Lola, Mrs. John Greer and John of Sault Ste. Marie. They kept store at Cassville, then spent some time in the West, and during World War I he worked in munitions in Toronto. Returning to Newleton they farmed on the 5th concession of Cartwright and he was County Road boss. Mrs. Veale passed away in 1942 and later the farm was sold to Mr. Fred Dwyer, and Cecil worked on local farms. In recent years, after war work in World War II, carpentering and caretaking of Lake Simcoe summer homes, he divided his time among his family in Hamilton, Sault Ste. Marie, Lindsay and Dundas, spending much time in hospital.

He is survived by an uncle Marwood Veale, aged 82 years of Hamilton, his sister, Mrs. Charles Paine (Rita) of Newleton, a daughter, Lola (Mrs. John Greer), of Lindsay and son John of Sault Ste. Marie, also four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The funeral took place on June 23rd from McDermott's in attendance from Hamilton, Panabaker Funeral Home, Rev. Perry, Rev. John Griffith, of Dundas, delivered a comforting message.

Pallbearers were three cousins Bill Chapman, Perry, Leslie Wright, Toronto and Crawford Prow, Perry and three neighbors, Mr. Howard Lee and Bill Taylor, both of the Adelbert Beacock, Newleton.

Interment was in Newleton Cemetery where friends were in attendance from Hamilton, Sault Ste. Marie, Toronto, Lindsay, Dundas, Bowmanville, Perry, Blackstock and Newleton.

It was just one of those fine days for another day.

average Sunday evenings up hidden away until two fire trucks roared past Fenwick Finch's highland highway and Fenwick jumped out of the car and ran to the front of the car where he had been relaxing in and exclaimed: "Great balls of fire... there must be a fire place."

As usual, Fenwick was right on the ball and in no time that he had rounded up a crew of volunteers to help him track down his location.

It was after his trusty human bloodhounds had got on the right trail that Fenwick belabored the mosquito he was telling the boys about the other day... He one last tangled with a partridge and was about to give the poor bird the needle when Fenwick hauled it off. It happened just about where all the cars are parked along the road to the fire.

After chalking up seven at "just about another quarter-of-a-mile", Fenwick spied the grins of a big cabin and announced: "Well, boys, the logic like a end of the line." A stalwart group on the other end of it.

And that's the end of this training from length commencing, Fenwick is quoted as having merely observed: "The data that had to carry them off will likely be running pretty full." As to bolting the cabinet, Diefenbaker should have thought of that."

A delicious luncheon was served by the Academy of Friendship. This consisted of pickled salad and rolls; fancy cookies, tea and coffee. The (albacore) a can of both salads with a crocheted dog cover, was won by Co-Worker Jennie Rodd.

Fire head says object would be consolidation

Following swiftly on the heels of the closing of the Canadian Armaments Ltd. plant at Lindsay, more unemployment looms for the coming winter with the probable layoff of 45 employees of the Lindsay Woolen Mills Ltd. plant, one of the largest and oldest in the district.

In the picture was made gloomy when one of the officials of the plant — Michael Macchias — told "The Post" that "there was a good possibility" the local plant would be absorbed by the parent company in Quebec. He added, however, that definite word would not be available until a meeting of the directors.

A motivating factor was the proposed change was that have-ing the two plants (the home office in Quebec and the Lindsay plant) all "under one roof" would reduce overhead costs, and would greatly facilitate shipping, said Mr. Macchias. He was unable to say how the present staff would be absorbed if, and when the change came.

Lindsay Industrial Commissioner S. R. Pitts was not available for comment.

Coming to an abrupt stop at a point 35-degrees angle at the church parlor scene of WMS meet

The June meeting of the St. Andrews W.M.S. met in the church parlor with a good attendance. Mrs. John Wallace presided.

The meeting opened with community hymn singing. Prayer was by Mrs. J. J. Thurston and Mrs. Gwynne Laurence.

The singing of the hymn "The W.M.S. Motto" and "Lord's Prayer" repeated in union by Mrs. Walter Finney. The secretaries reported and Mrs. Wilbert Thorne read the financial report. After roll call all the officers signed a card to be sent to Mrs. Violet Sargeant expressing the group's Best Wishes.

At this was the last meeting until fall. Mrs. Wallace asked that the group do some visiting during the summer. Mrs. Steep read a list of names to be called on and wished one and all a Happy Holiday.

Mrs. J. A. McKerscher occupied the chair for the remainder of the meeting, reading a poem "What Is My Home?" by Mrs. M. P. Perkins read "Psalms 91," Mrs. McKerscher offered prayer.

Offering was received by Mrs. J. A. McKerscher and Mrs. J. A. McKerscher. A reading from Glad Day, "The Supply," by Mrs. Annie Jackson and an appropriate hymn "God be with You We Meet Again" closing with the Nipah Benediction.

Four ladies of Christ Church WA made life members at meet

A happy and interesting event took place recently in Robeytown, at the lovely home of Miss Helen Boyd Sherwood Ave., when the afternoon branch of the W.A. of Christ Church, Anglican held their June meeting at which four ladies of the group were made life members. This honor was bestowed upon them by the branch, relatives and friends came as a complete surprise to the recipients.

Those received into life membership and privileged to wear the gold Winchester Cross are as follows: Mrs. Flora Attilah, Mrs. Walter Young, Mrs. Stan, and Mrs. Roy. The president, Mrs. Robertson, opened the meeting then called upon Mrs. Roy who gave a warm welcome to all present. She stated that this was no ordinary meet, but very special and unique because it was 63 years ago that the Branch had first been organized.

Unsupervised, regardless of where you meet them or where they come from is to pretty much the same in many respects. . . . They like to read, eat, drink and play, laugh, play, take pictures, pump the other guy for news and travel around at other people's expense.

On the weekend a group of about 28 United States editors and publishers flew into Lindsay a little ahead of schedule and went on the prowl to work up an appetite for the banquet the Chamber of Commerce had promised them on arrival. (It developed later that the town endorsed the C of C's tab for the outing. . . . kind of a co-operative gesture in which the town fathers justified their action on the grounds that besides promoting the tourist trade in the area, they might get a lead on a new industry to bolster the declining industrial situation they were to be threatening.)

More newspapermen seemed more interested in eating than in reading as might be assumed from the pictures above. Two wily, talkative men at that had several pairs of feet under them and several hungry heads above them (top picture) when the dinner got going in the new downtowns. Boudrie Restaurant dining room. It was only possible to get one or two in a group at a time reading a local newspaper. . . . some attributed this to the fact that reading a big paper like "The Thursday Post" took up a lot of room and the boys had to spread out more. Another clear cut case of where one cannot go by circumstantial evidence.

Some of the heads can be seen in the left side of the tables are those of Mayor Joe Holmberg and Charles W. S. talking to Thos. H. Bowen of the "Salem Sunbeam", Salem, Minn., C. C. of Manager Harry MacDonald of Lindsay, and the wailing line in a solid and two in a line, former Lindsay C of C President W. J. Bundecko works over his food. On the right hand side, moving away from the camera, are C. C. of member Don Scott (second head looking); James Nolan of Lindsay is the man leaning across the table and smiling, while the next gent along is Councillor Ernest MacCabe.

It was reported confidentially after the dinner that the operator of the eating house — Mrs. Irene Haggard — had given the hosts a special rate on the meals. . . . one far below the standard price.

The two reading newspapermen on the right with his camera men are Leon A. Burke, Jr., of Lansing and Charles W. S. of the "Lindsay Post", a real camera man with a warm spot in his heart for the "Thursday Post" — the bug if you ever saw one he's three-reading-viewers.

Confidentially, everything these days seems to be either "strictly confidential" or "off the record", except for the "Thursday Post" which is a "conflict of interest" is involved and then it's usually well informed sources.

PEIRCE PUNCHES HOLES IN "UNDERSTANDING"

"I'm your boss and I'm firing you," was the refrain of Chairman Hutton's explanation of an exchange of words between himself and Welfare Administrator Harry Peirce on Cambridge St. around 11 p.m. Monday. The two locked horns in continuing a council controversy re the administrator's report which stated the remuneration he was receiving—"take home pay of $87 per week" was not fair to his family of himself as the work was demanding.

"Harry Peirce is not going to accept any outside the council Chamber," continued Mr. Hutton. . . . "I'll take no dirt from him. I'm his boss and I told him . . . he's a town Councillor now. I instructed Administrator Clerk Dave Crossley just now to prepare a request for Mr. Peirce's resignation. . . . Welfare Administrator, will sign it to-morrow. He (Peirce) has no choice but to resign. . . . everybody but me (the chairman) — that was going to resign his job. . . . he resigns. I read the report (re the welfare job here) to the council. He complains the report was not acted upon and he wants immediate action thereon. . . . explained to council that there wasn't a quorum at the town council meeting, therefore no action could be taken. With he reports he is not satisfied with his remuneration. . . . I recall, according to council motion, that this remuneration was to be reconsidered after an appeal to the welfare work was made six months after his hiring. . . . that was effective on Jan. 31, 1962 at a remuneration of $2,300 plus $200 car allowance."

On the other hand Administrator Peirce explained that he had been in Lindsay since 1954. He carried his annoyance expressed in council, to accept his resignation. . . . both men parked side by side, prepared to start their cars following the council meeting.

"After the meeting we are just two citizens," Mr. Peirce commented. When Mr. Hutton said that he had gone to the Clerk's office to have, as he said, a resignation, Mr. Peirce wondered and am still wondering and is going to resign. . . . He was talking with Clerk Bud Bates and have found there is no time mentioned in the minutes as to what whatever designating when the reappraisal of my salary and the remuneration of the Welfare Administrator's job was made. I am of the opinion that it was made three months ago. . . . but there is no record. This job is existing. . . . my report is on the council. . . . It is not my fault. If he (Hutton) had arranged for the committee meeting with a quorum to consider it."

Chairman Hutton said four months ago. . . . He is surprised by her husband, three daughters and four sons, two sisters and three brothers.

He was a member of the Lindsay Welfare Association and was a member of the Christ and Little Day Saints Cemetery.

CHLORPROMAZINE NOT NEW DRUG; 50 MILLION HAVE TAKEN IT

Dear Dr. Steiner: A number of months ago you wrote about the use of chlorpromazine in the management of elderly people who have become mentally ill. I am a physician. I asked you who my father, who is in his 70's, and who had become irritable, hard to please, and far from neat in his habits. You said, why not take up the question of using this medicine with our doctor? I tried two months.

Your doctor is probably also taking an occasional blood test to check on your reactions. All in all, you can be self of 20 years ago.

There is only one question in my mind: Is such a strong medicine liable to cause any damage to the system? I've heard that it affects the liver.

Comment: I've just been reading a recent article in J.A.M.A. by Frank J. Ayd, Jr., M.D., of Baltimore on this very drug, chlorpromazine. It is to be used in patients who are in distressing reactions in many cases it has saved the blood, liver and nervous system from undergoing electro-shock treatment and prolonged treatments in hospitals.

NO CURE-ALL
Of course, like any other drug of importance, it is not a cure-all. But it certainly has its indications. Don't listen to people who scare you with stories about its bad effects on the liver and blood. Your doctor is aware of that. He is on guard.

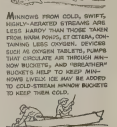

It often comes down to a question of choosing the lesser of two evils: watching a patient deteriorate mentally or taking a chance-and-small-one—that he might get some sort of complication.

This drug does not cure the underlying conditions, but it certainly can alleviate many distressing symptoms. Ask any family with a mental problem in the home, and you will realize what I mean.

And don't think that your doctor is experimenting with you. Unknown dangerous drug when he prescribes chlorpromazine. As Dr. Ayd: "Yet 10 years later it can be recalled that chlorpromazine has been prescribed for an estimated 50 million patients, that

100 attend summer rally

The Lindsay Presbyterian Summer rally was held in Port Perry Presbytery Church with 100 in attendance. A Port Perry lady extended a warm welcome. Mrs. H. Wideman and Mrs. McKenney took the afternoon devotion service. Mrs. E. G. MacDonald presented the treasurer's report, showing an increase in giving over last year at this time.

Mrs. Whalen of Beaverton, gave the highlights of the Synodical meetings and Mrs. McIntyre of Fenton Falls, Miss Beatrice Scott, a missionary on furlough from India, in her beautiful suit brought the Hill field very close to us, as she reminded us that God had committed unto us the word of reconciliation, the way might be ambassadors for Christ.

The evening session opened with a sing song and the devotions were taken by Mrs. York, Woodville. Miss Pat Gordon, Lindsay favoured with a beautiful solo.

The guest speaker was Miss Beatrice Scott, a missionary on furlough from India, in her beautiful suit brought the Hill field very close to us, as she reminded us that God had committed unto us the word of reconciliation, the way might be ambassadors for Christ.

Mr. H. Wierman of Beaverton, President, presided.

ST. LOUIS BEATS SAN FRANCISCO

St. Louis punted over a run in the sixth inning on a throwing error to beat San Francisco 6-5 and replace the Giants as National League leaders. The Los Angeles Dodgers beat Cincinnati 4-1 to close to within a half-game of first place. Philadelphia edged Pittsburgh 5-4 on Don Demeter's 10th inning homer. . . The Chicago Cubs downed the New York Mets 4-1. . . and Milwaukee blanked Houston, 4-0. The Cubs have scored only one run in the last six innings. The Chicago White Sox edged New York 3-1 on Floyd Robinson's seventh inning homer to tie to within nine percentage points of the first place Yankees. Boston swept a two-night doubleheader from Cleveland 4-1 and 5-1. . . Minnesota blanked Detroit, 1-0. . . Kansas City trimmed Washington, 8-4. . . and Robin Roberts pitched ballgame to a shut win over the Los Angeles Angels.

ANOTHER FULL SCHEDULE

There's another full schedule of games on the major league schedule, including a two-night doubleheader today. The two-nighter in the American League has Baltimore at Los Angeles. Also after dark, it's Cleveland at Boston, Detroit at Minnesota, New York Yankees at Chicago and Washington at Kansas City. In the National, the Chicago Cubs are at New York for an afternoon contest. Under the lights, Philadelphia at Pittsburgh, Los Angeles Dodgers at Cincinnati, Houston at Milwaukee and San Francisco at St. Louis.

RETAINS ATTORNEY

Carlos Ortiz of New York has retained an attorney in an effort to get the World Boxing Commission to reinstate his lightweight crown. The W-B-C vacated his title earlier this month for failing to defend against Michigan's Sonny Lane. Ortiz claims he had not been able to get a worthwhile guarantee to fight Lane. . . SOUND ENOUGH

An official of Sportsworld Incorporated says he has a medical report that indicates heavyweight Sonny Liston's knee is sound enough for the July 22nd return title bout with Floyd Patterson. The chairman of the Miami Beach Boxing Commission had questioned the fitness of Liston's knee.

BY END OF WEEK

Edging Sugar Ray Robinson says he will decide by the end of this week whether to retire from the ring. The former middleweight and welterweight champion was handed a bad beating by Joey Giardello in Philadelphia on Monday night.

TWO-DAY MEETING

Commissioner Joe Pess will preside at a two-day executive committee meeting of the American Football League opening today in Buffalo, New York. One item on the agenda will be to revise security regulations to guide teams and players.

OWRC expands studies of algae nutrient problems

The Ontario Water Resources Commission is expanding its studies of algae nutrient problems created by algae, it has been announced, with particular references to the algae Cladophora which grows along the shoreline of parts of Lake Ontario and Lake Erie.

Investigations of the effectiveness of chemical control will be made by aircraft application of chemicals to certain growth areas. Further the efficiency of new algaecides will be determined in laboratory and small-scale lake studies. The purpose of this being to obtain information concerning a safe, economical control procedure.

A study will be made of various possible methods for the mechanical collection and disposal of accumulations which are found in the shore while studies previously started on the relationship between water fertility and the spread of algae will be expanded.

Possible uses for the algae will be investigated.

The report in studies made in the summer of 1962, the Commission reported that in Lake Erie, Cladophora was found to be to a depth of about 13 feet, but in depths greater than 7 feet the quantity was relatively small. In Lake Ontario algae greater than nine feet, were action did not dislodge.

In Lake Ontario algae was found to grow to a depth of 23 feet.

End of the Lake Erie area under observation in 1962, Cladophora developed an unhealthy appearance, probably due to accumulations coming ashore a short time later. No pronounced crop development during the remainder of the season.

This algae in Lake Ontario was dark green in color, continued its growth throughout the summer.

The report concluded that from observations made and information received from municipalities using mechanical methods, the procedure was effective in removing gross accumulations. However, hand labor was not considered available which could completely clean a beach. Mechanical cleaning was effective only when the algae was first brought ashore and before decomposition took place.

This method was relatively inexpensive in comparison to other methods. The use of the beds in the water, the report stated, added "while it is not entirely satisfactory, it is a tolerable condition can be achieved". There was room for improvement in techniques of collecting and disposing of the algae which make the collecting procedure more efficient and probably less costly.

In regard to effectiveness of various algaecides, the report mentioned that Hydrothol was effective in killing Cladophora in tests made in Lake Erie and Lake Ontario. Aquasin cracked well in Lake Erie but was not satisfactory in Lake Ontario. Both chemicals cost about the same, $55.00 per acre of lake bottom treated at a similar concentration.

The report said Hydrothol was easier to handle and could be applied by aircraft. One other experimental chemical reported promising in laboratory studies as it appeared to control this algae at the same concentrations than Hydrothol.

Of two chemicals applied to control algae, and tested by decomposing accumulations, algae, one provided some temporary relief, the other gave some immediate relief and suppression. However, the Dogs running "on the loose" are still in the news and still making much of being done in the way of enforcing the by-law that covers this kind of municipal law.

A black and white collie was the cause of a near three car pileup the other night. Two cars proceeding on the Minden by-pass were meeting another car coming south — in the vicinity of Jack Swann's house the dog came onto the road to chase the northbound car.

The northbound car hit his brakes almost as his car brakes almost sliding across the highway into the path of the southbound car. The second northbound car had to swerve onto the shoulder to miss the car in front of him. The dog was unharmed.

Where would the responsibility lie in the case of damage and loss of life had this resulted in a head-on collision? A dog that spends his time chasing cars is of little value to its owners.

A Lindsay lady asks the following question: "When is a dog catcher not a dog catcher?"

The answer: "When he works for the town of Lindsay," could apply almost anywhere in the counties of Victoria and Haliburton.

Councillor Bert Curry of Haliburton has been one of the most ardent supporters of the by-law to control dogs "running loose." He had been constantly agitating that the by-law be enforced. It was enforced, and it is ironic that the first summons to be issued should go to Mr. Curry.

In spite of this fine Mr. Curry still feels strongly that this by-law should be enforced. A newcomer to this area charged for a dog licence — when he received it he also was given this piece of information. "There is a local by-law covering dogs being allowed to "run loose" — however, no one pays much attention to it — and had advice coming from the by-law enforcement officer.

Met a friend of mine the other day — just a short visit — he was the "Flying Dutchman" Tim R. Norton. Tim has gone from the Singer Sewing Machine Company to the Mutual Life of Canada. If he sells insurance he did manage this country will be well protected.

Haliburton County is expanding its facilities for tourism. Edward Johnson with his Karl Track has opened the way for another track operating one mile south of Glenora. The Rowden Kart track has been quite busy since its opening.

Miniature golf is on its way back. Cameron of Wilber, a force has had a good season with their course — the first one in the county. There is another one being built at Fort Irwin at Haliburton Lake. This is a two to three year plan taking the opening of an 18-hole miniature course at the Little Chick Inn, Bushong Lake.

McA. A. Schuyler has plans for a full-sized golf course and club house just past Belthol. This is a two to three year plan taking the opening of an 18-hole miniature course at the Little Chick Inn, Bushong Lake.

Female Finch started and re-fled. Cameron of Wilber, a force has had a good season with their course — the first one in the county. There is another one being built at Fort Irwin at Haliburton Lake. This is a two to three year plan taking the opening of an 18-hole miniature course at the Little Chick Inn, Bushong Lake.

It has long been my contention that we do not give our tourists the opportunity to "Buy Canadian." Our gift outlets are largely stocked with foreign gifts. This is no one's fault — this is the situation.

The newly altered "Highland Restaurant and Drive Inn" just outside of Haliburton is taking a step in the direction of giving the tourists gifts — "Made in Canada."

Gerrard and Marion Moffitt have completely renovated the Price's Mac-Bar has just building and added a handicraft shop to the restaurant. "Norm" Price has a Marion is a skilled craftsman herself and is bringing her skill and knowledge to this field of distributing hand-crafts.

There is a corner for "Rock Hounds and Puppies" all types of costume jewelry made out of native stone. Quite a bit of the "oddities" comes from the Bancroft area.

The reservation at Curve Lake has a wide showing of Gijbwa Indian Craft. This is particularly interesting because the Gijbwa were the original settlers of this area — they were forced out by marauding Indian bands.

This hand craft industry is under the leadership of Chief Don Whetung — he will be remembered as the most courteous gentleman who has the dog tags at the Minden Winter Carnival for the past two years.

"Nature's Sculpture" no two pieces the same — that just about covers Gerry's display of intricately designed and carved pine root forms. "Highland Mall" soft ice cream is the feature of the newly decorated restaurant. This is the first for Haliburton — customers can be assured of good service as Gerry is an expert in this field — he was known as the "Soft Ice Cream King" when he left Kingston to come up here.

All-in-all the customers have something to look forward to.

Just a short item to finish off with. Ever had your car stolen? I had.

Sitting in Craig's Coffee bar looked over the rim of my coffee cup to see my car being driven down the road.

The lady driver drove so unconcernedly as though she owned the car — which it developed she thought she did.

It didn't take long to straighten the situation out — her car and mine were almost the same color and make — it could happen to anyone.

For the past week, Mrs. Marg. McKay has been subjected to a great deal of good-natured ribbing. She is usually greeted with, "Been stealing any cars lately?"

As Sec'y-Manager of the Haliburton Chamber of Commerce, what better way to gain publicity for the County?

That's it for now — see you next week.

When faced with the observation that Bill thought of a "hundred-mile walk" he said, "well, go and get 'er!" That started Bill on his 24-hour non-stop walk back to Ernie Palmer's store in Hartcourt where he got the tax and went right back to the camp and "put 'er on." Bill said it was a little tired and to that day he really doesn't enjoy a cup of tea.

The stories were many and varied — his trips as a timber trapper in British Columbia — the weather made no difference — 20 to 30 below zero — sleeping in branch lean-tos — all part of the trip.

There apparently is very little of Canada that Bill hasn't set foot on at some time or another. His trips, 200 miles or more make any walk President Kennedy might suggest look like a Sunday-School picnic.

Newest Italian Furniture Sculptured and Engineered

The beautifully modelled form of the chair with its straight narrow back is characteristic of the sculptured and engineered work of the newest Italian furniture designers. The chair, also from Italy, is sculptured. Although its lines are simple, the sculptured wood grain are captured in a single decorative effect. Sculptured grain pattern in a chair back seen at left. Available from Italy Furniture.

Italians have perfectly painted rooms in the furniture-making world with their "architectural" furniture, a phrase coined to describe the precise quality—on equalled elegance—of their design. That country's contemporary design.

This fact was well documented by a trade mission of 25 Italian furnitureists who toured this country recently. The mission was sponsored, jointly by the Ministry For Foreign Trade of Italy and the National Council of Foreign Trade.

Although Italian furniture styles enter to a vast range of taste, emphasis was placed on the contemporary collections.

Softer, more rounded lines than are seen in the designs of other countries contribute to the sculptured quality. This is true in the overall form as well as

Friendly club reviews early days of theatre, here

Lindsay has had a friendly club for many years—a group of women interested in current events locally and nationally, as well as in any other avenue of thought. This Club meets once a month and recently the topic presented and under discussion concerned early days of the opera and theatre in Lindsay.

It was disclosed that Lindsay's first opera house was located in the present Town Hall which contained a gallery at the extreme east wall and a stage against the west wall. Sir John A. Macdonald, on his first visit to Lindsay as Prime Minister of Canada, is reported to have made a speech from a small balcony which was located on the south side of the building.

One of the first managers of the old opera house was Prof Burke, who also for a time was manager of the then new Academy theatre at present located on Lindsay street north. The late R. J. (Bob) Manion was also at one time Manager of the old opera house.

It is reported that the first Lyceum (later film) picture house was located on Kent street where the Lindsay House Bakery now is situated. The first Manager was the late E. E. (H) Meehan. Later on the picture shows moved into the present Academy theatre. The Academy was for many years operated as a travelling road shows were popular. Guy Drew, M.P.

and many others played for a 3 and 4 nights and jack-pot of the theatre. Many citizens still remember such shows as "Uncle Tom's Cabin", "The Lyons Ruff and Jeff", and "The Lyons Ruff and Jeff".

The discussion at the Academy, last 11 months became Manager and later part owner.

The theatre was for years known as the Academy of Music and entertained many local amateur shows, which were yearly Minstrel Shows sponsored by the Lindsay land. Noon-day parades were held with the entire musical show men in step and the four corners was the Kent St. stop for the band to present stirring music.

Many citizens also recall the amateur musical productions presented by the choir of the Methodist Church under the direction of the late C.C. Forth, such as "Queen Esther", "Kathleen Knight", etc.

Among the principals were Mrs. Walter Hester, Rev. Billie, Mrs. George Blackwell, Mrs. Howard Nabst, Mrs. W. Widya, H. B. McMillan, Ford Moynan and others. Minstrel shows at the time included: Harold Meier, Grod Roberts, H. Mehan, Jack Grey, Tom Murphy, Herb Middleton, Parker Minstrel shows included such artists as Jack Pullerton, Joe

Other theatrical recollections included the starting of the Kent motion picture theatre at the foot of Kent street, next to MacCadden's cigar store. It was owned and operated by Fred Edmunds and his daughters the Misses Edmunds. Living on William street north. Mr. Edmunds was a showman in his own right and at one time presented outdoor shows at the market square, using his ability as a magician and ventriloquist to attract an audience. He was one of the first men in Ontario to own and operate what was known as a magic lantern.

STOP! — killing yourself

By Peter J. Stainovich, M.D., F.A.C.P.

PANCREATITIS PATIENT PRETENDS 'SENTENCE'
Dear Dr. Stainovich: Are you a doctor who smokes and drinks alcohol, and knows that something interferes with digestion or the pancreas and causes it to become acutely inflamed?

I was told that I was lucky to escape its infection to my gall bladder. I did not die. My physician has cautioned me about my smoking and drinking and made by Dr. John W. Baker taking alcohol, even in small amounts, as harmful about 10 years ago. I have had a long history of chronic pancreatitis, and I have been prevented from smoking and drinking for several years. I have had two or three attacks in the past year, and I am now in the hospital. I am told that I am lucky to escape its infection to my gall bladder.

HOW'S GALL BLADDER?
Comment: I suppose you were brought into the hospital, with extreme abdominal pain, and you were told that you were lucky to escape its infection to my gall bladder.

OTHER KINDS OF DIABETES
For Mrs. V. The fact that your husband is always thirsty and passes much urine — but has no evidence of sugar in his urine or increased amount in his blood — I think it is important to rule out another kind of diabetes. It is called diabetes insipidus. Treatment with pituitary gland substance helps his illness.

For Mrs. N. Don't believe that when you get to be an "old 50" you will not be interested in your appearance. A man of 74 has just written asking what to do about puffiness around the eyes. We're never really old unless we lose our vanity.

The English writer, Joan, said that "How vain is the attempt it is for a man to endeavor doing himself honor among those who are out of all degrees of equality of company." The Lucille page was seven with him.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steinhorn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

HUSBAND KILLING HIMSELF AND ONLY HE CAN STOP IT

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: My husband is in his early 40's and consumes six to eight ounces of liquor a day, except on weekends when he usually doubles the amount.

He also smokes two or three packs of cigarettes a day, and on breakfast and two or three nights a week puts away huge quantities of ice cream covered with sauce and nuts.

His yearly physical examination shows a gradual gain in weight and a tendency toward high blood pressure. He has no other symptoms.

I believe he is headed for trouble. He says when his time is up it's up and that he could be crossing the street and be hit by a car. Obviously, he has no intention of changing his habits and just briefs if anyone even suggests that he should. How can I help?

Make a special trip to your public library and look in the index for the book, "How To Stop Killing Yourself."

Put these in his hands. If he refuses to read, then I would say his outlook is hopeless. If he does read at least there is some chance that he may see himself as the central character in a tragedy and reform his ways in time to save himself.

Perhaps your husband will get some sense into his head by reading the following letter. Some day he may wish that he has been struck down by the car rather than suffer endlessly.

LIVER TROUBLE

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: Could you possibly tell me some symptoms of cirrhosis of the liver? I would not surprise me if my husband had it as he has been drinking heavily for over 20 years.

Don't have to tell you what kind of life we have shared. The last time he saw a doctor was six years ago. He was told never to take any kind of alcohol, not even a teaspoon of beer as his liver was enlarged.

Since then he has had three fatal hemorrhages and vomits every morning. His back is full of plumples. He eats very little, sleeps a great deal, also drinks lots of water.

His stomach is large and he has veins on his abdomen. How long can a 150-pound, 50-year-old man hold on? No doctor can answer me, so he refuses to go to a doctor. Mr. D.

Comment: Mrs. D. I hope you read Mr. B's letter carefully, and Mrs. B. you do live with Mrs. D's. You have a common problem.

I wish I could give you the solution. But it's evident, that only your husbands' will to stop committing foul suicide is the antidote against further annihilation in either case.

I can only hope that the advice in my letter and book may be the key for opening the door to some happiness for all of you.

For Mr. C. It's true that in acute appendicitis the pain in the abdomen usually spreads all over it and localizes on the right side later. Although most patients have nausea and vomiting, one can have acute appendicitis with only a little pain.
